

Instructor Code of Conduct

- Skijammers instructors shall conduct themselves in a manner that is consistent with practicing safety, risk awareness, professionalism, a high standard of integrity, self-control, and responsible behavior.
- Skijammers instructors shall not engage in illegal conduct.
- Skijammers instructors shall not engage in harassment of any kind against a ski area guest, ski area employee, a member of the general public, Skijammers employees, Skijammers students, Skijammers volunteers, Skijammers contractors or industry partners.
- Skijammers instructors shall not discriminate against any student or any other person on account of race, religion, age, creed, disability, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, or nationality.
- Skijammers instructors shall not conduct themselves in a manner which would bring discredit to the Skijammers Ski & Snowboard School.
- Skijammers instructors shall not abuse any privilege that may be extended as a result of their role as a Skijammers instructor from industry partners such as equipment manufacturers, retailers, ski areas or other professional groups.
- Skijammers instructors shall not allow the use of their name or likeness in such manner as to misrepresent or otherwise mislead the public concerning any given product or service.
- Skijammers instructors shall not misrepresent themselves in any way to the organization, for instance, their professional status, competence, or experience.
- Deviation from this Code may result in disciplinary action up to and including the loss Skijammers Instructor Status.