Boys Cross Country

The Boys Cross Country team had a great race on Saturday at the IHSA Regional Meet finishing 3rd out of 10 teams while advancing to next weeks Sectional meet.

The Titans placed five runners in the top 15 overall to score 54 points just behind state ranked Rolling Meadows and Hersey. Top finishers were Will Kelly (7th), Will Houser (8th), Charlie Schultz (12th), Brian Hildebrand (13th), James Kurtzweil (14th), Joey Pauletto (21st) and Harrison Wollney (36th).

The IHSA Sectional Meet will be held next Saturday, October 27, at Busse Woods in Schaumburg at 11:30 a.m.

Boys Soccer Regional Champs!

The Titans battled host-team Maine South on Saturday in a Regional Championship victory!

Through freezing temperatures and a devastating wind, GBS was able to score early in the 2nd half off a Jimmy McMahon free kick. However, with a few minutes to go in the game, the Hawks were able to tie with a penalty kick, sending the game into overtime.

After two overtime periods, the game would be ended with a Penalty Kick Shootout. Scoring each of the penalty kicks were Jimmy McMahon, Gavin Morse, Michael Zenzola, Ryan Batka, and Kyle Barda with the game-winner. The Hawks were held at 4 penalty kicks due to one hitting the crossbar and not going in.

The #2-seeded Titans will face the #3-seeded Wildkits of Evanston in a Sectional Semifinal match-up on Wednesday, 7 p.m. at ETHS.

Go Titans!

Football

Titans ended their season with a loss against New Trier on the road, dropping the final game 38-21.

"They have a really good team, a lot of size and they were able to pack the box and not let us get into our pass game much," Glenbrook South coach

Dave Schoenwetter told the Glenview Lantern. "We had a couple good drives, but we had too many three-and-outs in the first half."

"We went into halftime, talked about what adjustments we needed to make, what plays have been working for us," Schoenwetter said. "We burst a couple and as I told my backs, 'We are at the safeties, we have to make somebody miss and have to make them go.'"

The Titans were able to put 21 points on the board without leading rusher Jack Jerfita hitting pay dirt. The senior ran for 83 yards on 21 carries.

"We didn't have any one super star on this team and we faced adversity throughout the entire season, all the way up to the end of the season, Schoenwetter said. "But the kids' character showed out and they came out hard in every game."

Girls Field Hockey

The Titans season came to an end in a 3-2 loss to North Shore Country Day, in a Final Eight match-up on Friday, Oct. 19.

The team set a record this year with 13 wins on the season.

Great year!
