Parent & Player Code of Conduct:

- No alcoholic beverages consumed, tobacco products, or vaping on or around the practice or game location. Not allowed to attend practice or game while intoxicated.
- No abusive or profane language used on or around the practice or game location.
- No possession or use of illegal drugs.
- No Public Display of Affection (PDA) on or around the practice or game location.
- No aggressive contact with attempts to harm or hurt another person, including but not limited to biting, punching, kicking, fighting, or spitting. It will result in an ejection from location and will be suspended from any participation through BYA until reviewed by the BYA Board.
- No parent is allowed to assist with practice or games without submitting a Coach's Application, having a background check, and being approved by the commissioner of that sport.
- Parents must give notice to the coach if a player is not able to show up or will be late for practice or a game.
- Must wear appropriate clothing to all practices and games. Everyone must wear a shirt or top that limits exposure during physical activity, bra or sports bra is not acceptable as a top and needs to be covered. Everyone must wear shorts that limit exposure during physical activity or when sitting. Any clothing with reference to alcohol, tobacco, illegal drugs, or profanity is prohibited.
- If ejected from a practice or game location, you will not be allowed to attend the next game.
- If you have an issue or question about the coaching methods used, please address these with the coach. If the situation is not resolved and only after you have talked with the coach first, contact your BYA commissioner.

Practice and Game Days:

- If a player does not show up to practice or a game without notice or legitimate reason, the coach does not have to play that player in the next scheduled game. If a player misses 50% or more of practices due to sickness, the coach can ask for a doctor's note. If note is not provided, the coach does not have to start that player in the next scheduled game.
 - Except for Softball - Each player must receive a minimum of half an inning of playing time.
- Please respect the officials and their authority during the games and do not question, discuss, or confront officials at any time.

Cancellation Policy:

- Any refund(s) requested before uniforms are ordered is 100% refundable.
- There are NO refunds after uniforms are ordered.

Too often, people get caught up in a 'win at all cost' philosophy; that is not the philosophy to which we aspire. The results we hope to see in this program are good coaching, good sportsmanship, and positive outlook on continued participation in athletics. We wish you all a successful and rewarding season.
