GRAHA Executive Board Elections

GRAHA is soliciting members of good standing to run for 5 open seats on its board. Board members will attend monthly meetings and help with GRAHA events throughout the season.

To be included in the 2023 election, candidates should complete a nomination application and include a "Personal Bio" with the application. All applications must be submitted to a board member or a member of the GRAHA staff no later than March 1, 2023.

GRAHA continues to strive to be a positive influence within the hockey community. GRAHA is committed to providing an environment that promotes and grows the love of hockey.

We are looking for dedicated people with positive attitudes who can help GRAHA continue to grow in the future and remain the best place for kids to play hockey.
