

DAVE BECK

Coach Dave is entering his first year of coaching with ZYSA, after spending the previous six years with the Indiana Fire Juniors.

The Indiana native (Greenfield) studied Marketing and Economics in his time spent at Ball State University and Missouri State University. He started playing soccer in middle school, and continues playing the game today in adult leagues around Indianapolis.

In addition to his club coaching experience, the 2019 Indiana Soccer Girls' Travel Coach of the Year Finalist has been on staff with Indiana ODP for the past five years, and is a skills trainer at Sogility (Westfield).

He enjoys spending time with his family, playing guitar, and running distance races.

Coach Dave has earned his USSF National D license, and intends to earn his USSF National C license this club year. He has also earned his United Soccer Coaches National Diploma, NSCAA Goalkeeper Level I Diploma, as well as the RMA 100 Level Certification. He is a Grade 8 Referee.
