4. Registration: On-line registration only.
 - Sign up will start when school starts
 - If need assistance with signing up, they can contact a board member
5. DIBS: Parents will need to sign up on-line only for all activities
 - When parents arrive for volunteering, they will need to sign in
 - Freshman and older can help work in the concession stand
 - 2 hour time slots
 - 4 hours per player
 - if families owe money from last year, they will need to pay on-line when they register before their child can play next year or they can volunteer for double the hours in the first half of the season

6. Possibility of hosting outside tournament-sponsored/coordinated by Tom McCarty
 - The Milwaukee Bucks have contacted Tom McCarty (Regional Director) about getting schools to host a youth state tournament. The organization would pay people to work the score table, ref, etc. They would only take the admissions table. The booster club would make 100% from concessions. We could charge them to rent the facility also.

- 3rd-8th grades
- boys and girls
- Mosinee would only host one age group, 3-4 courts
- 16 teams/bracket
- Divisions 1-2 together and Divisions 3-5.
- Club would choose weekend from Jan 11-Feb 15

Board has decided this would be a great fundraiser

7. GNLB host tournaments and teams: 6th grade-Feb 1 or 8, 7th grade-Dec 7 or 14.
 - Gyms are all reserved
8. Coaches meeting: Scott will have meeting with youth coaches the 2nd week in October prior to the booster meeting.
9. Scott has gym time reserved for September 21,28 and October 5,12. He plans on running a basketball camp for Mosinee kids grades 5-8. There will be a fee and players will receive a tshirt.
 - more to come
10. Thank you note was received from Megan Priest for scholarship.
11. Tina was given a letter to be signed to be affiliated with the school district. She will sign and send back.
12. Next meeting: Sunday September 8 at 6Pm at the Brewing Company.
