Barbara Black Poli

Barb has been coaching the boys and girl's varsity cyo teams at St Jude School until this past winter and continues working 1v1 with area athletes. She has coached at the College, High School and middle school levels for over 30 years in many different sports but mainly basketball.

She and Debbie coached the Comets AAU teams for 2 years and recently retired from coaching Marple Newtown's High School Girls Team.

She is currently the Unami girl's 7th grade coach, the Unami 8th grade girls field hockey coach, Holicongs 7&8 grade girls Lacrosse coach and in the winter runs the CBAA kindergarten clinics program.

She played basketball in Australia and went back with Debbie to compete in the World Masters games in 2002 to win the gold medal.

She was the first 12 letter athlete at Saint Joseph's Univ. And was also a 12-letter athlete at Archbishop Wood High School. She was inducted into the Archbishop Wood Hall of Fame in 2005.

Debbie Black

Just last week was inducted into the Colorado Basketball Hall of Fame and last Year into the Australian Basketball Hall of Fame

Debbie is currently in the Philadelphia area and just finished coaching 3years with Marple Newtown's High School Girls after coaching 2 years for the Comets AAU 7th grade teams.

She was the Associate Head Coach at UTC but came home due to family obligations. Prior to UTC she was the Head Coach at Eastern Illinois University and Assistant Coach at Ohio State following her WNBA career.

Debbie is 5'2 and (August 14, 2005) retired from the WNBA. She ended her career with the Connecticut Sun who lost in the finals in 2004 and 2005. She previously played for the Miami Sol and the Utah Starzz, in the WNBA, earning The Defensive Player of the Year Award in 2001. She played two and one half seasons in the ABL (American Basketball League) with the Colorado Explosion and was a two time All Star and Defensive Player of the Year.

Before playing professionally in the USA, Debbie played in Tasmania, Australia where she won two World Championships and earned the nick name (Tasmanian Devil).

Before turning Pro, Debbie played at Archbishop Wood High School (Hall of Fame and # retired). She won a scholarship to St Joseph's University (Hall of Fame and Big Five Hall of Fame). where she is still the steals and assists leader. She then went overseas to play in Australia. Debbie has since been inducted into the Bucks County Hall of Fame, the Philadelphia Hall of Fame and last November was inducted into the Pennsylvania Hall of Fame. Her quadruple double ball is currently in the Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield Massachusetts. (10 points, 12 assists, 14 steals and 10 rebounds)

In March of 2017 she was inducted into the Atlantic10 Conference Hall of Fame.
