

As told by Don Navatsyk:

My name is Don Navatsyk and I have been a youth baseball coach for more than 20 years and have been passionate about the game as a player and coach for 60 years. From 2010 to 2015, 40 of my former players were playing in college. Many were hitting in the 1-4 slots in the lineup. After recently coaching the Buckeye League 11U All Stars, I believe that every kid playing in the All Star game could use my help with their swing mechanics in order to generate more bat speed and become better hitters in general. Since I am now retired, I have decided to start the Blizzard Baseball School - which is basically me giving lessons on all aspects of the game but, in particular, that very difficult aspect of hitting. I have worked with and I am willing to work with anyone from the ages of 8 through their college years. On numerous occasions, I have had college players come to me and ask for some help in "fixing" their swing.

My rates are $65 per hour for an individual lesson and $25 per hour per individual for a group lesson - with a minimum of 3 and maximum of 5 players in a group lesson. Half hour rates are $35 for an individual and $15 per individual for a group. There is a 10% discount for a package of five lessons paid in advance and a 20% discount for a package of 10 lessons paid in advance. Initially, prior to the onslaught of cold weather, these lessons will be at the Chardon Eagles field located at 317 Water Street, Chardon, Ohio. Below is a link to Google Maps for the location of the field.

I am working on finding a facility for when the weather makes it impossible to do it outside. I am also willing to come to your place but I would need to be compensated - depending on where you are located. For example, I recently spent time with a struggling 13 year old player in his garage hitting off a tee into a net for 30 minutes. He is normally a pretty good hitter who just needed to be reminded of a few things and to tweak his grip a little bit. He was very happy with the results.

My lessons come with a money back guarantee. If at the end of the first lesson, you believe that the instruction is not worth the money, then there will be no charge and all payments will be refunded.

To coaches: I promise to never recruit (steal) one of your players. I coached one of the most successful travel teams in northeast Ohio - winning many games at a national level - without ever cutting one of my own players and without ever recruiting (stealing) another team's players.

To parents: I promise to do everything within my power to help your son become a better baseball player and to increase his passion for the game.

Please call me or email me if your player needs some help with the game.
