

FORT HAYS STATE UNIVERSITY WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

2021-22 MIAA REGULAR SEASON & TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS

KBCA WOMEN'S FOUR-YEAR COLLEGE COACH OF THE YEAR

30-4

Fort Hays State finished the 2021-22 season with a 30-4 overall record, the third time the program reached 30 wins in a season under head coach Tony Hobson. FHSU won the MIAA regular season and tournament championships, going 19-3 in MIAA play. The Tigers matched their deepest run in the NCAA Tournament for a third time, reaching the Central Regional Finals.

725

Hobson now has 725 wins in his career as a collegiate coach, spanning 30 years. He has a career record of 725-215 (.771), ranking in the Top 10 among active NCAA Division II coaches in win percentage. He has enjoyed nine 30-win seasons and twenty four 20-win seasons. He also has three NAIA national championships to his credit while coaching at Hastings (Neb.) College.

312

Hobson is the all-time coaching wins leader in Fort Hays State Women's Basketball history. Hobson reached the top of the list in just 11 seasons. He now has a record of 312-109 in 14 years guiding the Tigers. Hobson also tops the all-time win percentage list for FHSU coaches, now at .741.

TONY HOBSON

48

Fort Hays State has enjoyed 48 All-MIAA selections under Coach Hobson's guidance. He has coached two MIAA Players of the Year and three All-America selections. Hobson has been the MIAA Coach of the Year four times. This is the second time Hobson has been named the KBCA Women's Four-Year College Coach of the Year, also receiving the honor for the 2018-19 season when FHSU finished 32-2.

11

Hobson guided FHSU to its 11th-consecutive year of at least 20 wins in 2021-22. It is the longest active streak in the nation by an NCAA Division II school. The Tigers reached at least 30 wins in a season three times in that span, including 2021-22. Hobson also has nine 30-win seasons as a collegiate coach overall with three at FHSU, five at Hastings (Neb.) College, and one at Barton (Kan.) Community College.

7

Hobson guided Fort Hays State to a berth in the NCAA Division II National Tournament in seven of the last eight years. The Tigers have been the No. 1 seed in the Central Region four times, including the 2021-22 season. Fort Hays State only appeared once in the NCAA Division II National Tournament before Hobson took over the program in 2008-09.
