

Orono Youth Hockey Association "OYHA" Coaches Committee Application 2023

The Orono Youth Hockey Association "OYHA" Coaches Committee or "Coaches Board" is filled by 9-members that are vetted and recommended by the Coaches Committee and then nominated by the OYHA Boosters Board. With three of the nine positions being up for nomination each year. Individual appointees serve three-year terms and must have been a registered coach with USA Hockey or MSHSL for at least one of the last three years. The Coaches Committee is responsible for hockey operation items related to all youth Spartan teams. More specifically, they are responsible for recruiting, retaining, training, and selection of coaches. They are also responsible for tryouts, evaluations, team placements, and tournaments. If interested in helping please complete the questions below and email to cbchair@oronohockey.org and secretary@oronohockey.org no later than March 27th, 2023. Any questions please email cbchair@oronohockey.org.

Members can expect to spend ~120 hours annually fulfilling their roles. The months of September & October require dedicated participation while player evaluations are taking place. Please take your personal and work schedules into consideration during that period prior to applying.
