TALKING POINTS

BIRTHDAYS IN THE BUBBLE

Three players will be celebrating their birthdays while staying in the bubble:

Dec. 26 - Sam Colangelo
Jan. 2 - Cam York
Jan. 5 - Cole Caufield

Sam Colangelo is celebrating his 19th birthday today. The Northeastern University forward was recently drafted by the Anaheim Ducks, after playing a full season with the Chicago Steel (USHL). Colangelo's parents, Mark and Karen, are watching the World Juniors back at home in Stoneham, Mass.

DOWN THE ROAD

Jake Sanderson's grandparents live in Edmonton, Alberta. This year's World Juniors was going to be the first time in over two years seeing their grandson play in-person. Instead, they'll be cheering on Jake and Team USA from the comfort of their home this year.

TEAM USA ON ZOOM

During the four-day isolation quarantine, Team USA spent time on Zoom with notable U.S. National Junior Team alumni Patrick Kane (2007), Charlie McAvoy (2016, 2017) and Dylan Larkin (2015). Kane, who won a bronze medal in 2007, was named to the World Juniors All-Star Team. McAvoy, who won a gold and bronze medal, was named to the 2017 World Juniors All-Star Team. Larkin was tied for the tournament's lead in goals scored in 2015 with five goals in five games. Tampa Bay Lightning assistant coach Derek LaLonde also spoke to Team USA early in the isolation quarantine period, with emphasis on best tips for staying sharp in the bubble and how Tampa Bay overcame adversity to win the Stanley Cup.

RETURNERS

The U.S. returns eight players from last year's roster, including both goaltenders Spencer Knight and Dustin Wolf. In total, U.S. players who scored 56% of goals, and 54% of team total points last year are set to return for the Americans in 2021. Trevor Zegras led all Americans last year with nine points, all assists, including his memorable four-assist game against Germany. Arthur Kaliyev leads the returning forward corps, after notching four goals in 2020. Knight is playing in his third World Junior Championship, after winning a silver medal as the third goaltender in 2019, and playing four of the United States' five games in 2020. Knight is only the third goaltender in USA history to appear in three World Junior Championships. Cam York is the lone returner on the blue line. York led the Americans in scoring last night.

FIRST IIHF GOAL

Trevor Zegras scored his first IIHF career goal with Team USA in last night's 5-3 loss to Russia. The goal, a power play marker, made the game 4-3 prior to an empty-net goal. Zegras had played in 10 IIHF games heading into this year's tournament, between the 2019 IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championship and 2020 IIHF World Junior Championship. Zegras had been credited with 18 points, all assists, in 10 games.

FAMILY TRADITION

Three Team USA players have fathers who previously played on U.S. National Junior Teams:

Bobby Brink - Andy Brink (1994)
Ryan Johnson - Craig Johnson (1991)
Alex Turcotte - Alfie Turcotte (1984)

Craig Johnson played in four IIHF Men's World Championships (1993, 1996, 1999 and 2003), and served as an alternate captain in 2003. Johnson won a bronze medal in 1996, and also played on the Team USA Winter Olympic Team in 1994. Alfie Turcotte played in the 1986 IIHF Men's World Championship for USA Hockey.

2021 U.S. NATIONAL JUNIOR TEAM NOTES

PRELIMINARY GAME VS. AUSTRIA • DECEMBER 26, 2020

ADDITIONAL NOTES

MEET THE CAPTAINS

Cam York was voted as team captain on Dec. 24 prior to the team's first preliminary game. Cole Caufield and Alex Turcotte will serve as alternate captains for tonight's game against Russia.

(C) CAM YORK: One of eight returners from last year's National Junior Team, York is currently a sophomore at the University of Michigan (Big Ten). This is York's first time serving as a captain for Team USA, after playing in both the 2018 and 2019 IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championships, where he earned a silver and bronze medal. In the 2019 tournament, York set tournament records for all-time tournament points by a defenseman (17) and all-time tournament assists by a defenseman (13). York is the lone returner from the 2020 IIHF World Junior Championship on the blue line for the Americans. The defenseman was teammates with Caufield and Turcotte from 2017-19 at the U.S. National Team Development Program. A native of Anaheim, Calif., York was drafted by the Philadelphia Flyers in the first round, 14th overall.

(A) COLE CAUFIELD: Caufield is competing in his fourth IIHF event, after previously collecting a silver and bronze medal at the IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championship in 2018 and 2019. Additionally, the forward played for Team USA in the 2020 World Juniors. Caufield led the 2019 IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championship with 14 goals scored, tying Alex Ovechkin's individual tournament record, where he served as an alternate captain in 2019. The Stevens Points, Wis. native is currently playing in his second season for the University of Wisconsin (Big Ten), after being selected by the Montreal Canadiens in the first round of the 2019 NHL Draft, 15th overall.

(A) ALEX TURCOTTE: Turcotte is playing in his second IIHF World Junior Championship, after competing internationally in two IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championships, including in 2019 where he served as an alternate captain. The Chicago, Ill. forward most recently played at the University of Wisconsin (Big Ten) during the 2019-20 season prior to signing his entry-level contract with the Los Angeles Kings. Turcotte was selected by the Kings in the first round, fifth overall.

RECORD SETTERS

The U.S. National Junior Team features three record-setting NTDP players: a forward, defenseman and goaltender. Cole Caufield set the NTDP goal-scoring records for single season (72) in 2018-19 and career goals scored (126), 2017-19. Previous record holders were Auston Matthews (55) and Phil Kessel (104). Caufield is third all-time at the NTDP with 180 career points. At the 2019 Under-18 Men's World Championship, Caufield tied Alex Ovechkin's tournament record for most goals in single tournament (14). Cam York owns the NTDP record for points by a defenseman in a single season (65 in 2018-19) and is second all-time at the NTDP in career points by a defenseman (103), 2017-19. Additionally, York set all-time marks at the Under-18 Men's World Championship including career points by a defenseman (17) and career assists by a defenseman (13). Spencer Knight set the NTDP record for most wins in a career by a goaltender (59) from 2017-19, and was T-1st for most wins in a single season (32) after his 2018-19 campaign.

QUARANTINE QUICK SHIFTS

Forward Matthew Beniers hosted a three-part Zoom series during the four-day isolation period. 2019-20 U.S. National Team Development Program teammates Landon Slaggert and Brock Faber were asked rapid fire questions in Episode 1, Trevor Zegras and Patrick Moynihan hopped on for Episode 2, and Episode 3 was co-hosted by Zegras with guests Matthew Boldy and Cole Caufield. All three episodes are available on USA Hockey's YouTube channel.

VIRTUAL FANS

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic there will be no fans in attendance at this year's World Junior Championship. However, there will still be fans cheering on teams, albeit virtually, this year. Team USA has some special guests in its virtual crowd, including friends and family for some of the players. Matt Boldy's father, Todd, will be in attendance and says, "Go get the gold boys!" Dustin Wolf's mother, Michelle, will also be logging in from the Wolf's house in Washington. She says, "We'll be together as a family on the 25th rooting on our boys!" U.S. National Team Development Program Under-17 player Frank Nazar is joining the fan section. Landon Slaggert's cousins Mitchell and Morgan Nave have had their youth seasons cancelled due to COVID-19, but they're logged in and ready to cheer on USA. USA Hockey also invited fans to apply to join the virtual cheering section. Jason Eselunas plans to be watching with his twin girls and says, "Go USA!" And best of all, Brenton Parsons promised to "paint my entire family red, white and blue. America."

WHERE HAVE THEY BEEN TRAINING?

Not all leagues have been able to begin their seasons, meaning some of Team USA's players have not played a game since last season. Below is a list of those players and where they've been training.

Sam Colangelo: has been training with Northeastern University
Arthur Kaliyev: trained with Los Angeles Kings

Alex Turcotte: trained at USA Hockey Arena with Cole Caufield and Cam York, in addition to training with Los Angeles Kings, and briefly trained in Germany with Eisbären Berlin

Dustin Wolf: trained in Stockton, Calif. with Flames organization, and traveled to Michigan early to train at USA Hockey Arena

Trevor Zegras: trained with the Anaheim Ducks

GONE CAMPING

OCTOBER CAMP

Due to COVID-19 restrictions, USA Hockey was unable to host its annual World Junior Summer Showcase, that would normally play host to games between the United States, Canada, Finland and Sweden. The United States did hold a National Junior Evaluation Camp in Plymouth, Mich. at USA Hockey Arena from Oct. 8-13 that included 42 players. The camp, featuring three days of intrasquad competition, allowed general manager John Vanbiesbrouck and his staff to review the talent pool of American players born in 2001 or later.

DECEMBER CAMP

USA Hockey invited 29 players back to Plymouth, Mich., on Dec. 6, for a week-long camp in preparation for the World Junior Championship.

A BIG ASSIST FROM THE BENCH

Equipment manager Nate LaPoint highlighted his hockey awareness last night as he quickly got defenseman Jake Sanderson a new stick quick enough for Sanderson to make a diving play at the blue line to thwart a Russian scoring chance. LaPoint is the equipment manager for the University of Wisconsin (Big Ten). He typically will keep his hand on the replacement stick as a player takes a faceoff, or winds up for a one-timer, in order to help any broken stick replacements.

RETURN TO EDMONTON

Five players on the U.S. National Junior Team competed in the Hlinka Gretzky Cup in 2018, hosted inside Rogers Place in Edmonton and Red Deer, Alberta. The team's captain, John Farinacci, scored last night in the third period as the Americans looked to complete the comeback.

ABOUT THE STAFF

ABOUT VANBIESBROUCK

John Vanbiesbrouck is serving as general manager of the 2021 U.S. National Junior Team, marking his third straight season serving in the capacity including the 2019 silver-medal U.S. squad. The 2007 U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame inductee has previously represented the United States as a player on nine occasions, including one Olympic Winter Games (1998), two Canada Cups (1987, 1991), four men's world championships (1985, 1987, 1989, 1991) and two world junior championships (1982, 1983). A full-time employee of USA Hockey, Vanbiesbrouck began his duties as assistant executive director of hockey operations for USA Hockey on June 4, 2018. His responsibilities include oversight of all of USA Hockey's international efforts, including its men's, women's and sled programs as well as the National Junior Development Program.

ABOUT LEAMAN

Leaman has been a part of two previous U.S. National Junior Team coaching staffs, including as an assistant coach for the bronze medal-winning 2007 squad that competed in Leksand and Mora, Sweden. He also served as an assistant coach for the 2009 team that played in Ottawa, Ontario. Leaman made his USA Hockey coaching debut as an assistant coach in 2005 at the IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championship, where the U.S. won gold in Ceske Budejovice and Plzen, Czech Republic. The 2020-21 campaign is Leaman's ninth as head coach at Providence College, where his Friars have advanced to the Frozen Four on two occasions in the last five years. During his tenure at Providence, Leaman has coached 26 NHL Draft picks in addition to six undrafted players currently under NHL contract. He has also coached three players selected to play for the U.S. National Junior Team: Jon Gillies (2014, 2013), Erik Foley (2017), and Parker Ford (2020). Gillies and Foley were both part of gold-medal winning teams. Prior to Providence, Leaman spent eight seasons (2003-11) at the helm of the Union College men's ice hockey team.

BEST OF THE BEST

Assistant coaches Ted Donato, Kris Mayotte and Steve Miller have an extensive NCAA resume, combining for more than 58 years of Division I coaching experience. The assistants have a combined nine international appearances with USA Hockey, including the 2017 gold-medal team in which Mayotte and Miller served as assistant coaches. Donato, making his USA Hockey coaching debut, was a member of Team USA in the 1992 Olympic Winter Games in Albertville, France. In addition, Donato played in three IIHF Men's World Championships, serving as captain in 1997 and also representing the U.S. at the event in 1999 and 2002. Ted's son Ryan Donato played on the bronze medal-winning 2016 U.S. National Junior Team, as well as the 2018 U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Team. Mayotte, Miller and Theresa Feaster all served on head coach Nate Leaman's staff when Providence won the 2015 NCAA championship.

TEAM USA AMERICAN HOCKEY DEVELOPMENT TIES

USA HOCKEY'S AMERICAN DEVELOPMENT MODEL

The American Development Model, now in its 11th season, is USA Hockey's nationwide player development program for youth hockey associations. It's based on age-appropriate, age-specific competition and training for boys and girls, beginning with their first steps onto the ice and carrying them through age 18 and beyond. The ADM places a heightened emphasis on skill development and long-term athlete development principles, providing a blueprint for the best possible youth hockey experience.

At the younger age levels, it looks like fun and constant motion in small spaces. The ADM encourages station-based practices, small-area games and cross-ice competition to deliver more repetitions, more puck touches and more skill development per hour of ice time. It provides the most efficient, most engaging development path for children, keeping them both in the game and on a path toward their full potential.

2020 U.S. HOCKEY HALL OF FAME INDUCTION

Dean Blais, Tony Granato, Jenny Potter and Jerry York were enshrined into the United States Hockey Hall of Fame as the Class of 2020. Blais (International Falls, Minn.) cut a wide trail of lofty accomplishments through every level of the game. He is one of America's most accomplished coaches, with his 40-year career behind the bench highlighted by leading teams to signature moments at the high school, junior and collegiate levels as well as on the international stage. Granato (Downers Grove, Ill.) not only had an exceptional playing career, but since his playing days has continued to make positive contributions to hockey as a coach at the NHL, collegiate and international levels. Following his college career, Granato spent the 1987-88 season with the U.S. Men's National Team and ultimately represented the U.S. in the 1988 Olympic Winter Games, one of seven times he donned the red, white and blue as a player on the international stage. Potter (Edina, Minn.), a 14-time medalist on the international stage whose U.S. Women's National Team career spanned 15 seasons, is one of the most decorated players in the history of women's ice hockey in the United States. Highlighting her career were four appearances in the Olympic Winter Games, including helping Team USA to a gold medal at the 1998 Games in Nagano, Japan. She is one of only three U.S. women's players to compete in four Olympics. York (Watertown, Mass.) continues today to leave an impact on American hockey that will positively affect the game for generations to come. He enters his 27th season as head coach of the Boston College men's ice hockey program in 2020-21, and has guided the Eagles to four NCAA championships (2001, 2008, 2010, 2012), four national runner-up finishes, and 12 NCAA Frozen Four appearances. He is the NCAA's all-time leader in NCAA Tournament wins. In addition, York's teams have seized 11 Hockey East regular-season titles and nine Hockey East Tournament titles. Over the course of his BC coaching career, York has guided his teams to winning records in 22 of 26 seasons to date, including in 22 of the past 23 campaigns. He has coached two Hobey Baker Award winners and 18 NHL first round draft picks.

MEMBERSHIP RELIEF FUND

The USA Hockey Foundation has launched a new initiative--the Membership Relief Fund--to assist families who are facing financial hardship by covering the cost of their child's USA Hockey membership for the 2020-21 season. The goal of this campaign is to help at least 5,000 youth players back to the ice. USA Hockey is still currently accepting grant applications and donations. For more information, visit USAHockeyFoundation.com.

RAISE THE FLAG AUCTION

The USA Hockey Foundation has organized an online effort with a goal of $100,000 to raise proceeds to support USA Hockey's efforts in preparation for the upcoming 2022 Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games. Current items include suite seats for a Minnesota Wild game with GM Bill Guerin, a 1980 U.S. Olympics Men's Ice Hockey "Miracle" canvas painting, and more! For more information, visit USAHockeyFoundation.com.

COVID PREVENTION

USA Hockey continues to work with medical experts, local governments and hockey organizations to focus on COVID-19 risk mitigation throughout the hockey community. Leaders continue to emphasize the importance of parents, coaches, volunteers and players working together in order to combat the spread of COVID-19. Everyone can do their part by following four easy steps: follow state and local health guidelines, wash your hands with soap and water frequently, sanitize equipment after each use and wearing a mask properly over your nose and mouth. For more information visit USAHockey.com/playersafety.

YOUTH NATIONALS

For the first time since 1938, USA Hockey was forced to cancel USA Hockey National Championships in 2020, due to the COVID-19 pandemic. However, USA Hockey continues to plan for the 2021 Youth National Championships, presented by Chipotle. Notable championship alumni include U.S. National Junior Team forward Arthur Kaliyev, Cammi Granato, Phil and Amanda Kessel, Kendall Coyne Schofield, Joe Pavelski, Troy Terry, and many more. Youth Tier I age groups include 14U, 15U, 16U and 18U, in addition to Youth Tier II and High School. Many players on this year's roster have competed in district and national championships previously in their careers.

PLAYER DEVELOPMENT CAMPS

USA Hockey continues to utilize Player Development Camps in order to evaluate top talent across the nation. District camps allow for a diverse representation, coast to coast, of hockey players around the country. 24 of the 25 players on this year's U.S. National Junior Team attended at least one USA Hockey Player Development camp, with many playing in the Select-15 camp. Many top players from the S-15 camp go on to play for the U.S. National Team Development Program. Select camps also assist USA Hockey staff to evaluate national talent for international competition, including the Hlinka Gretzky Memorial Cup. Five players on this year's National Junior Team previously played in the 2018 Hlinka Gretzky Cup, which was hosted at Rogers Place in Edmonton, Alberta, and Red Deer, Alberta.

USA HOCKEY'S NATIONAL TEAM DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

Founded in 1996, USA Hockey's National Team Development Program began operations in Ann Arbor, Mich., and remained there until the summer of 2015. The full-time program is composed of two squads, the U.S. National Under-18 Team and U.S. National Under-17 Team, who compete in the USHL as well as against international and collegiate competition.

The Under-17 Team competes in the United States Hockey League and also participates in three international events annually. The U.S. National Under-18 Team's schedule includes games against NCAA Division I and III opponents, USHL teams as well as competition in three international tournaments.

USA HOCKEY ARENA

USA Hockey Arena is a two-sheet facility with regulation ice (85x200) in the main arena and Olympic-size ice (100x200) for the secondary sheet. Acquired by the USA Hockey Foundation on April 1, 2015, the facility has added 20,000 square feet to the property that includes a 9,800-square-foot workout facility, additional offices and a conference center. In total, the facility encompasses 170,000 square feet with the main rink providing 3,504 seats for hockey games and 4,500 seats for other performances and events.
