Charging the goalkeeper in possession of the ball is NOT ALLOWED in any youth play in BHYSO. Possession is defined as: "One or two hands on the ball, holding it, bouncing it, tossing it up and then catching it, or patting it along the ground." B. It is not an intentional "hand-ball" offense for any player to attempt to protect the vital areas of his or her body (chest, crotch, face) by placing hands or arms across them to protect them from being struck at close range by the ball. The match referee shall be the sole judge of whether the hands or arms were used to deliberately propel the ball. C. Coaches and assistant coaches are subject to the same game disciplinary procedures by the referee as are the players, i.e., cautions and/or ejections. D. U12 and below recreational play shall not engage in heading, either in practices or in games. When a player deliberately heads the ball in a game, an indirect free kick (IFK) is awarded to the opposing team from the spot of the offense. If the infringement occurred within the goal area, the IFK should be taken on the goal area line parallel to the goal line at the point nearest to where the infringement occurred. If a player does not deliberately head the ball, then play should continue. E. Under 10 and Under 9 – no punting is allowed. All attacking players must retreat behind the build out line which should be equidistant between the penalty area line and the halfway line. F. Slide tackling is not allowed in U8 and below. The result of this foul would be an indirect free kick (IFK).
