Tax Deductible Donation Procedure.
Calgary Colts Junior Football Association.

Dear Calgary Colts Community Sponsor,

I am happy to help facilitate your gracious donation, and resulting tax-deductible receipt, for the money you donate to the Calgary Colts Junior Football Association.

The Calgary Colts are a partner of the Canadian Junior Football League (CJFL). The CJFL is a registered Canadian charity and able to issue tax-deductible receipts for personally donated money. Player fees donated by a corporation benefit from corporate tax accounting—no corporate tax deduction receipts are issued—only personal tax deductible receipts are issued.

Your money, donated to the CJFL, is earmarked for donation back to the Calgary Colts Football Association. Many other CJFL teams use this function for the benefit of their donors. The Calgary Colts are encouraged by the CJFL to do the same.

How To Make A Tax-Deductible Donation To The Calgary Colts:

1. Complete your cheque as per the example below.
 - a. Pay to the order of: Canadian Junior Football League.
 - b. Memo: For Calgary Colts Junior Football Association and players name.
2. Mail your Cheque to the Calgary Colts OR arrange delivery with Chad Moore. Calgary Colts mailing address in letterhead above.
3. Tax-deductible receipts are mailed to the personal address within the cheque annually by the CJFL.

Thank you,
Chad Moore
