Registration, Release and Waiver

The student in attending Build A Bear camp does so at his/her own risk. All our camps host schools, their athletic departments, and any staff member shall not be liable for any damages or injuries sustained by a student during camp or at the facilities. The student-camper and his/her parents assume full responsibility for any damages or injuries which may occur to a camper during any one of the camp sessions and so hereby fully and forever exonerate and discharge any staff, its owners, employees and agents from any and all claims, demands, damages rights of action or cause of action present or future, whether the same be known, anticipated or unanticipated, resulting from or arising out of the participation in the Build A Bear camp. Further, we the parents have been notified that our child does run the risk of sustaining an injury while participating in the conditioning camp. We the parents have also been informed that the extent of an injury could range from minor to very serious. Further, we the parents or legal guardian have been informed that there is an assumption of risk when anyone participates in the Build-A-Bear conditioning program.
