Coincidental Penalties

Player A1 receives a minor penalty and is sent to the penalty bench. Prior to the ensuing faceoff, a Team B player receives a minor penalty. Are these minor penalties considered to be coincident?

Yes. Coincident minor penalties occur any time that they are assessed during the same stoppage of play. (USA Hockey Rule 402(f))

- No penalty time is put on the clock
- Play resumes 5 on 5 (or as designated by other penalties during this time)
- After 2 minutes and the next stoppage in play, both players may resume to the ice/bench

* Since both teams are playing at full strength, if the player was to enter the ice after 2 minutes, a call of TOO MANY MEN would result and another penalty *
