

| | |
|-------------------------------------|--|
| | |
| Name and coaching age group: | Jeff Brown U10 |
| Nicknames: | None so far, but I am sure someone will give me one soon. |
| Favorite snacks: | Dried sliced Mango |
| Favorite Loon Trail: | Bronco....it's not technically on the trail map but it is inbetween upper Flume and Upper Walking boss |
| Favorite Spot in town: | Imperial Palace and Pemi Public House |
| Pets: | None right now. But my wife Mary is a dog walker and pet sitter, so we always have someone's pets at home! |
| Favorite part about coaching: | The kids and the families |
| Least favorite part about coaching: | Coaching in the rain and on days when the temp is below 10 degrees! |

| | |
|--|--|
| Ski racing and/or coaching experience: | I have been coaching at Loon Mountain since 1998. I started in the ski school as a day lesson instructor, moved to a Discovery Camp coach in 2001 and joined the Loon Mt. Development in 2003 to 2020. I then joined LRT last season as a U10 coach. I also am the head coach for the Oliver Ames HS race team from Easton, MA and have been since 2016. |
| Where do you spend Monday-Friday: | I am the owner of Cape & Islands Distillers in Mashpee, MA and Liberty Tree Distillers in Medfield, MA |
| Where did you grow up skiing: | Prospect Hill in Waltham, MA and Blue Hills in Canton, MA |
| When you aren't skiing, how do you spend your free time? | I love cycling, hiking, exercising and puttering, building and fixing things around the house. |
| One piece of advice you received from an adult when you were younger | Always treat others as you would want to be treated yourself. Be kind, caring, and generous in all that you do. |
| An interesting or fun fact: | I have been a vegan for 15 years |

| | |
|---------------------------------------|--|
| According to youth who know Coach ... | Coach Jeff is quiet but not too quiet. He does a good job noticing little things about our skiing. He is kind. He has a really nice personality. |
|---------------------------------------|--|