Leading the way again this week was Will Kelly who finished 9th overall to earn All-Sectional Honors!

Will Houser (17th) and Brian Hildebrand (24th) also stayed near the front of the pack to keep the Titans in contention for a spot a state. James Kurtzweil and Jayson Stamm rounded out the scoring to help the Titans qualify for state for the first time since 1994! Mrugesh Thakor and Matt Finkel worked together throughout the race finishing ahead of several teams 5th runner to keep the Titans score in qualifying position.

Girls Swimming & Diving

Girls Swim & Dive had a great meet against Niles North where we won on both the JV and Varsity levels. They also celebrated their 15 seniors in the program for their Senior Night!

The team thanks all of the parents and families for their dedication and support of their daughters throughout their time in our program.

Field Hockey

The Titans ended the season with a 12-7 record. This is the second season in a row with double digit wins. The team ended the regular season celebrating their seniors with a 1-0 win over Naperville North. MJ McNary scored the line goal and our defense stymied the Huskies for the rest of the game to preserve the shutout.

The team was awarded the eighth seed In the state playoffs. The Titans took on Evanston in the second round and easily moved on into the elite eight with a convincing 3-1. Eva Van der Goes scored 2 goals and Kyla Kachmarik scored one in the victory.

The Titans played hard but bowed out to the #1 seeded New Trier in the sectional final, ending their season.

The coaches are proud of our team for fighting until the end. They wish their seniors well in their future endeavors. The team is excited about next year!!

Go Titans!
