

2021 Arlington Attack Lacrosse Programs

Youth lacrosse is taking off in the area as lacrosse is now a sanctioned school sport for District 214 during the 2021 season for boys and girls. We are looking forward to the 2021 season!

We will follow all Covid Protocol and safety measures outlined by the CDC and Health Department during the season months.

2020 Arlington Attack - Instructional Lacrosse Program

Designed for players who have never played lacrosse.

Kindergarten thru 6th Grade – (No Equipment Needed)

This Program for (boys and girls) will be instructional and scrimmage games only. This is designed to provide basic and fundamental lacrosse skills for young players to give them a jump start in the sport. We will meet one day each week for practice and will have minimum of 6 scrimmages on Saturday mornings. Players will go through catching and throwing instruction and mini drills and games. Practice will move at a quick pace to keep the players entertained and having fun!

Schedule – April & May

Location – Rotary Park

Cost - $75 – Includes Practice Jersey and a stick to use during the program.

2021 Attack Girls Spring Lacrosse

This year the Attack Lacrosse program plans to have a Girls program where our teams will play in the ILL (Illinois Lacrosse League). Teams will be grouped by age. Our program will emphasize skill development, teamwork and sportsmanship. We are also looking for volunteers to help coach and manage the teams. All volunteers are welcome (no lacrosse experience is necessary). The Girl Lacrosse league will be using a grade-based system. Click the division/grade level below to go to the registration page. We plan to have indoor practice starting in March.
