

Dear Parents,
Good morning. Listed below are the news and notes for this upcoming week.

With the various weather forecasts, we will very likely have some possible changes and adjustments. However, if the weather that's expected doesn't arrive, listed below is our schedule.

This week more than ever, it's extremely important that the boys have coats, hats, and gloves; especially when we travel on the bus.

Also, today, Sunday, January 27, I will be at the gym from 3:30 PM to 4:30 PM for those boys that would like to come in and shoot. With the snow days and cancellations, the last day that the boys shot was Thursday. So if they can spare some time this afternoon, the gym will be open.

Feel free to call or text me if you have any questions!

Stay warm, be safe, and have a great week!
