WEEK 7 GAME 1

CTS 34 MILE HIGH BUILT 07

There was no shortage of fireworks in week 7 even though we already knew the playoff teams going in. To start off the last week of the regular season, CTS and Mile High Built battled for the potential #1 seed. CTS would get back on track after last week's clunker by beating MHB 34 to 7. CTS's defense made it a tough day for Artie Barceló, forcing him to throw four interceptions. Deuce Richardson took full advantage of the turnovers and threw four touchdowns on the day. There were three perfectly placed deep passes that left me awe struck. If CTS comes into the playoffs with the same fire, then look for them to grab their 7th PF3 title. For Mile High Built, Artie needed around 150 yards to have 1000 yards rushing. Artie was slowed by a hamstringing injury and didn't take off like we normally would see. He still set the new rushing record on his way to his 5th Atlas award. Congrats to Artie 'The Ghost' Barceló as he set a new record for points on the award at 274.62. CTS will look for revenge when they play NoCo Bulls in the first round. Mile High Built will look for their second win against The Bros this season.

WEEK 7 GAME 2

COLORADO HUSKERS 12 COLORADO MENACE 00

COLORADO FLAG
FOOTBALL CORNER

The second game didn't have any playoff implications but for pride, the Huskers and Menace both wanted to end the season with a win. The game was far from an offensive explosion as the Huskers won 12 to 0 with only one offensive touchdown all game. The Huskers scored their other touchdown off a pick six by Mario Lopez. This game was filled with interceptions from both sides. The Huskers would bring in three interceptions while Menace nabbed two. Both of Menace's INT's were at the hands of Brandon Cummings. Trevor Okamoto of Menace never could quite get the chemistry going that is needed to have success in the A league. We shall see what Menace will bring offensively to the table next season, but one thing we know for sure is Menace will have a top tier defense. For the Huskers they complete the season on a high note and with a winning record. Look for them to build upon that success and push for a playoff spot next season. Antoine Kelly is a huge piece to build with as he won his 5th Primetime player award. His point total this season is second in the history of this award, trailing only his own record total. Antoine is like a fine wine, he just keeps getting better with age. As for Menace they once again had the sack leader in Donovan Haynes. This is Haynes 4th Titan award for the league leader in sacks. He fell short of his own record of 17 but 9 sacks isn't too bad.

WEEK 7 GAME 3

DENVER GOATS 21 DENVER ROCKERS 20

The battle for the automatic invite to next season's A league was between the Denver Goats and the Denver Rockers. Pulling off the 1 point victory was the Goats winning 21 to 20. In the first half the Goats controlled the clock and only allowed the Rockers to run a total of four plays on offense. In those four plays the Rockers did get one score up. Both defenses had trouble stopping the opposing offense but the Goats were able to come up with a huge defensive stop to end the last min drive of the Rockers. Anthony Rankin was able to eat up 80 yards on the ground and throw for 197 yards. Rankin's main targets were Matt Keeling and Duane Rich as both caught five passes. As for the Rockers, Jerrad Burdick had a heck of a game as he was on the receiving end of two touchdowns and had 108 yards receiving. On defense, Jerrad and Richard Peterson were some flag pulling machines with 7 for both players. The two players getting the most pass rushing pressure on the quarterbacks was Conor Sparacio of the Goats and none other than Michael Parfitt of the Rockers, both players coming up with 2 sacks a piece. For at least one more season the Goats stave off the drop down to the B league, unlike the Rockers.

WEEK 7 GAME 4

THE BROS 26 NOCO BULLS 16

COLORADO FLAG
FOOTBALL CORNER

The final game in the A league would help figure out the playoff seeding. With The Bros coming away with the 26 to 16 win, they will have the #2 seed because they piled on the point differential to get the tie breaker. The Bros defense was straight dominant in this one, as Greg Jackson piled up 4 sacks to help get him to a tie in the league lead of sacks. He will be co award winner of the Titan award. On the offensive side, Donell Wells did his thing and accounted for 2 passing touchdowns and one rushing touchdown. Wells has gotten better as the season progressed which will only help their championship aspirations. The NoCo Bulls were absolutely no slouch as Eric Brown hauled in the two touchdown passes from David Knighton. Even though there was some chit chatting between the two teams, it remained fairly civil considering the friction between the teams. Jamiko Verner ended the regular season by winning the Ironman award in record fashion. This is his first award in the PF3 but surely won't be his last. Due up first for The Bros will be Mile High Built and I wouldn't be shocked if that games total points are somewhere in the 60's as both teams can put up points. NoCo Bulls will need some of that magic they had in week 6 since they face CTS again.

WEEK 7 GAME 5

MUSTANGS 19 SUDDEN IMPACT 00

In the B league we began the day with playoff implications on the line as the Mustangs went up against Sudden Impact. The Mustangs would get on the scoreboard first and holding a 6-0 lead into half. The Mustangs defense allowed some ball movement to Sudden Impact but wound up pitching the shutout. Two more late touchdowns gave the Mustangs a 19-0 lead that would give them their second mercy rule win or the season. Sudden Impact had to turn to top playmaker and former Primetime Award Winner Maurice Mansfield to play QB for a second straight week. While they moved the ball well, the end zone eluded them all day. Even with the win the Mustangs still had to see how the rest of the day played out to see if they would be making the playoffs. They would end up making the playoffs as the sixth seed and will face their rival Kryptonite in the first round.

OILERS 20 KRYPTONITE 14

The intrigue of week 7 continued as the 6 and 0 Oilers took on the 6 and 0 Kryptonite. This game definitely lived up to its billing and was a good game to watch if you had no allegiances. Both teams stalled out on their first drives but the Oilers wouldn't be denied on their second drive. The next score was a long pass from Dero Ard to Ray Whitaker to even the score up at 7. The score stayed tied up until after the first half. The Oilers would go up 7 after a costly bad snap on a punt gave the Oilers the ball on the 15 yard line. Kryptonite would answer back to even the score at 14 which stayed that way till about 2 mins left in the game. After Kryptonite stalled out while driving for the go ahead score, the Oilers would go on to score on the first play after taking possession making it 20 to 14. Kryptonite did still have approximately a minute left but couldn't get another score. The win gives the Oilers the #1 seed and a bye, the lose puts Kryptonite into the 3rd seed as the Lightning ended up with the point differential tie breaker since the two teams didn't play each other.

EAGLES 21 OLD SCHOOL 18

The game between the Eagles and Old School would determine who finishes the 2018 Fall league with a winless record and who would go into the winter with a one game winning streak. Even though this was a game with some of the bottom seeded teams, it actually was a back and forth affair. The Eagles would score first but Old School would answer right back. The Eagles would go on to take a 14 to 7 at the hands of Ethan Ford. Old School would score before half but miss the extra point which gave the Eagles the 14 to 12 lead at half. Old School was able to take the lead but they wouldn't hold on as the Eagles came soaring back to get the 21 to 18 lead. That lead would stand firm and give the Eagles their first ever win in the PF3. As for Old School their age may have caught up to them and with an average age of 40, just can't keep up with these 20 something year olds. Hopefully we see these two teams make strides to get better and compete in the spring of 2019.

FOE 12 SWAT 00

Although Swat has secured a playoffs appearance, they still were trying to get a higher seed. FOE on the other hand needed a win to secure a playoff spot or else they could've been in a three way tie depending on how the last game went. This game was nothing but defense for both teams. There wasn't a single offensive touchdown but all 12 points came on pick six's. FOE would go on to stone wall Swats offense but Swat won't have to wait long to get revenge as these two squads square up in round one of the playoffs. Once again points will be tough to come by as both these teams have top notch defenses. The winner will go on to face #1 seed Oilers who also have a tough defense. The pass rushing in this game was stellar on both sides and I wouldn't be shocked if some of these guys made the all-league team.

DENVER LIGHTNING 22 DENVER SHARKS 19

The final game between the Sharks and Lightning was far from a foregone conclusion. Lightning would jump out to an early lead but couldn't get the extra point making it 6-0. Unfortunately for Lightning, the ghosts of seasons past reared its ugly head and the Lightning's defense couldn't seem to stop the Sharks offense. The Sharks would answer right back with 19 unanswered points. But that lead would not hold up as lightning slowly chipped away making it 19 to 14. That's when bad clock management came into play for the Sharks as they decided to throw the ball with about 2 mins remaining but those passes fell incomplete and stopped the clock. With the ball at about the 15yard line, they had to punt. Now that punt did not go as far as they had hoped and gave the Lightning the ball in great field position. What the Sharks should have done was run the ball to make Lightning use their time outs then they could have snapped the ball for a safety and make Lightning drive the length of the field with about a min. But Lightning would go on to win and lock up the #2 seed and ending the Sharks playoff hopes. The Lightning will go up against whoever wins the Mustangs and Kryptonite game.

CODE OF CONDUCT/FINE/PENALTIES REMINDER

REMINDER: It is on the team captain's to make sure their players know the rules and follow them. There is absolutely NO FIGHTING. Doing so will result in HEAVY fines and suspensions. The rules are there for a reason. If fights happen then we may lose the rights to play on the amazing fields we have. Also, after each game the sidelines will be checked to make sure the trash has been cleaned up. Fines will be implemented to teams that leave their sidelines trashed. So please clean up after yourselves and your fans. Lets have good sportsmanship and have a great season.

The PF3 Code of Conduct/Suspensions/Fines/Penalties document can be found on our website www.premierflagfootball.com. Click on the Home tab, then select Documents.
