New OHC Hockey Director

Congratulations to Christian Graham. He will be the new Director of Coaching and Player Development. Christian will help with the development of our hockey coaches and players at all levels. With that, he will lead the planning and execute a consistent process for coaching, player development and leadership. Other key duties include parent communication and community outreach. A very exciting new step to bring Omaha hockey to the next level.

Congratulations New Board Members!

Vice President - Chad Mardesen
