PALS TOPPLE THRILLER

LEAGUE'S LAST UNDEFEATED TEAM

FALLS 5-1, 10-9

Mo Cohen and Zuti Gemal paced the Pal attack with 9 hits between them. The first game was won with a Sammy Cohen 3 hit performance and a Jack Shriqui contribution of 2 hits. Harold Ebani kicked things off with a second inning home run.

The Pals, emotionally charged, took off in the second game on a six run, two out rally in the third. David Shriqui's double was the key hit there. Thriller, however, continued to show what they are made of - even in defeat. Without their leftfielder, Azar, and with disabled Ely Tawil watching on the bench, Thriller went to a four-man outfield alignment: Cabasso, Braha, Heiney, and E. Blanco. They battled back to come within one run, 10-9, and 30 feet of a tie, leaving a runner at third to end the game.

LAST ROUND UP.....

Rollers, Kamikaze learned about the beauty of sharing last Sunday. Kamikaze hands Rollers 5 run sixth for the win in the first....Rollers reciprocated in second game as Kamikaze takes 2-1 decision.....Freddie Zalta had a one-hitter going into the seventh before Kamikaze tied game; they went on to win in eight innings.....Klingons may have busted out of their shell.....Captain (Mitchell) Kirk rallies troops to a 12-1 win after tough loss to Zapped! In opener.....

The numbers: Matalon 4 for 4, great pitching; Allan 4 for 6, 3 RBI's; Kemmy
4 for 7, 3 RBI's; Mitchell breaking through with a big 5 for 7, 2 doubles, 3 runs scored.....Welcome to the league Isaac Mishan and Stevie "Big" Nasar (How long do you think he would sit home?).....Speedy recovery to Stevie Nahama and "Phumpherillo".....Dirty Dozen splits with Angels.....4-2 Dozen victory made possible by RBI singles from that other big, Sammy, and Yogi and Elliot Kassin double.....Angels bombard Dozen in second, giving those sluggers a taste of their own medicine.....Stevie Kattan did it all - 3 homers, 6 RBI's on day.....team effort by Angels.....Come watch one of league's premier attractions, Charlie Saka's Yankees, currently in third place.....This team plays some very exciting games - battling back this week from a 5-4 deficit to beat Zip in 10 innings, and being shut out 1-0 in nightcap by Stevie Aizer.....You may finally be reading about the Yankees in weeks to come as second baseman, Joey Sutton, has been designated as the man to report all the action.....Thanks Joe.

PLAYER OF THE WEEK:

MOE COHEN

Morris sparked and sustained virtually every Pal rally in their big sweep of Thriller, to move to the head of the pack. Morris went 5 for 7 with 3 runs scored and 2 runs batted in. Here's some recognition for "Mr. Consistency".

LOST: Rawlings right-hand baseball glove
