Please fill out the following matrix with your team’s available dates to play including the dates your home field(s) is/are available and the dates and times you can play on the road. We will do our best to accommodate all of your requests. Please make sure you note your bye weeks on the form. Our scheduler will try and give you the same amount of home and away games. However, some teams might have more home or away games due to field availability. Please keep in mind if you have only a few available dates to play, your schedule will reflect less available games. When writing in your team’s availability including travel time to each location.
