

My name is Chris Alpers, and I look forward to serving the youth hockey players in Kansas City. With four years of experience as a parent coach, I would like to continue my commitment to creating opportunities for each child to grow and develop within the sport. I believe all kids, regardless of their skill level, deserve a great experience.

Bio

Chris Alpers brings a passion for youth hockey and the community. With a degree in economics and a minor in business and math, he works as a Certified Financial Planner in his own practice at Edward Jones. A former Division II golfer and 18-year adult hockey player, Chris loves the sport and its values.

As a parent of a second-year Peewee player, he is invested in creating a positive culture within the organization. He is a Level 4 certified coach and has coached since the 8U level, working with kids in the Bronze through Select divisions. His experience drives his commitment to ensure every player enjoys a rewarding hockey experience.
