Presentation is important

...And can be done with very simple materials

Even the best looking piece looks far better when displayed well.

The mat should be black rather than white. It can be precut and purchased from a Hobby store.

Or it can be cut by hand

How To Cut Your Mat

Please use matboard rather than poster board for stability. If posterboard must be used due to cost, be sure to cut smoothly with a utility or xacto knife rather than scissors. Day Ense Pad

Also be aware if artwork is mounted (attached to the top of the matboard) rather than matted... points may be deducted from the scoring – especially if edges of the work are a distraction to the overall piece.

48 19 20 21 22 23 24 26 26 21 28 29 30

Measure carefully, using a tee square and ruler. Add 4" or 6" to the width and length of the artwork to cut the overall size of the mat. Then measure in 2.25" or 3.25" from each side to provide the correct size opening for piece to show through.

Use a metal straight edge to cut.

Post-if Day Erase Pad

3

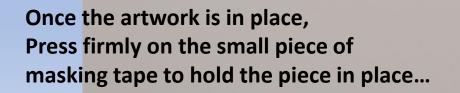

Cut from the FRONT of the mat – so that any snags end up on the back of the mat

Use a new blade so the cut is smooth and goes through in one or two strokes

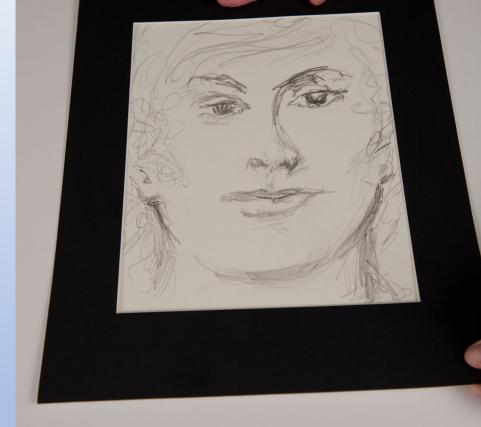

To place the artwork in the mat, start by placing a small piece of masking take at the top center of the piece... ...continue working from the front... and position the mat to give the best view of the artwork through the window

Then flip the art and the mat over... and secure all four sides with masking tape.

Please note, this is masking tape, not duct tape or packing tape. The masking tape can usually be removed to place artwork in another mat if needed for other display.

Post-it Table Top Pad Stilling

Secure the completed and the signed Adjudication Form to the BACK of the artwork - with masking tape.

Adjudication form does not need to be taped all around, but be sure to secure the four corners for security.

Be sure there is a piece name AND a description of the piece, in case the form does become detached.

Prepare to Transport

Once all pieces are prepared, organize all 2 D pieces in a common art sleeve or art envelop, if you have one.

You can MAKE a sleeve from two pieces of cardboard taped together if you like...

ABC Faith School Middle School

Put each level in a separate envelop - especially if you have several pieces. Label each envelop as illustrated

These are examples of very economical art folders that can be used. Get someone to donate them if possible.

A simple sleeve can be made from cardboard and packing or duct tape.

The sleeves help to keep the artwork organized, and protected. They also provide for easy return to you.

3D pieces can be organized in boxes OR wrapped individually in plastic or paper...with the Adjudication form inside the wrapping... THEN inserted into a box.

NOTE ONE EXCEPTION... A PAINTING ON A STRETCHED CANVAS SHOULD NOT BE MATTED

Paint the edge of the canvas BLACK all the way around. This functions almost the same way a mat does. Be sure to use a straight edge for a good finished look.

And be SURE to attach the Adjudication Form securely to finish the competition preparation!

If the painting is on a Canvas BOARD...

It should be matted like any other 2D piece

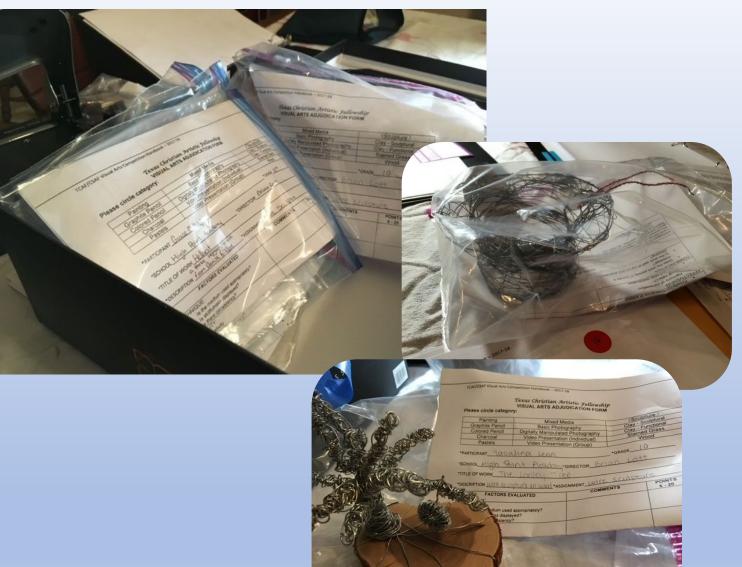

Nothing enhances a good piece of artwork like professional presentation.

Help your student to do that!

One suggestion for sculpture – if possible, "package" the art piece with the entry sheet so they can be kept together during processing. Insures proper info for display.

A couple of more things...

You Can Be A Judge... or Recommend One

Judging the competition is actually a fun day. It truly helps the kids to grow.

Judging day is March 30th – all day event. Shorter with more judges!

Please contact Doug Jefferson if you will be a judge. If you are recommending a judge, please get their "OK" before passing along their name

Competitions and Art Ideas

Arrange a Field Trip day NOW for your best/most interested Art Students... they almost never get to go places!!!

> March 31st of Competition Week the Visual Arts Display is open to view and to vote for People's Choice award... Each school level has a winner!

High School State Art Awards are presented at end of day !!!

What an honor and opportunity for your kids to shine! Art pieces need to be picked up that day, too... so the trip can serve many purposes... Figure out NOW how to take the trip with your kids!!!
