Called to Order: 6:50 pm – Jason Combs

Public Forum: Speaker brought up concern with ordering new jerseys for this season when we are unsure games would be held and coming up with $100.00 for jerseys in addition to registration fees that have not been set yet. Suggestion was made to wait on ordering jerseys until next season when a full season maybe anticipated and to put the $100 some have already paid toward registration fees. Board discussed and decided to wait until we have an anticipated full season.
