

Liz Boyle has been coaching all levels of lacrosse for over 19 years. She finished her second year as Assistant Varsity girls lacrosse coach at Baldwinsville High School. She helped coach the 2023 Baldwinsville Girls Lacrosse team to a Regional and Sectional Championship. Also helped coach the 2022 Baldwinsville team to a NYSPHSAA State, Regional and Sectional title.

Prior to Baldwinsville, Boyle coached girls' lacrosse at East-Syracuse Minoa School District, Bronxville Central School, and was an assistant coach for one season at SUNY Geneseo (04'). Boyle was also a Co-Head Coach at SUNY Cortland (08') where they won a SUNYAC title and made an NCAA second round playoff appearance.

Liz was an outstanding dual athlete at Baldwinsville High School (98') and continued her lacrosse career at SUNY Cortland. She was the four-year starting member at Cortland as a defender. During her career at Cortland, Boyle was named first-team all-region, all-state, and All-SUNYAC as a sophomore. Boyle was also first-team all-SUNYAC and honorable mention all-ECAC Upstate New York as a junior. The team won 4 SUNYAC titles and made four NCAA playoff appearances in her four years.

Liz has a BS in Elementary Education from Cortland (02') and an MS in Special Education from Long Island University.
