- III. Approval of Agenda- Mike motioned Approve, Jim 2nd all approved
- IV. Call to the Public- Nothing
- V. Financial Report – Checking: $164,644 Saving: $126,621. We will be offering a full refund to all participants if there is no season. Laurie processed one refund for a family. We also had one bounced check.
- VI. Old Business
 - a. COVID-19 – we discussed the possibility of no football in the fall due to the pandemic. Unfortunately, we will have to wait and see what the MHSAA determines about returning to sports in the fall.
- VII. New Business
 - a. Walk-in Registration – we will not be holding a walk-in registration this year. We will be asking parents for a height and weight. Then we will have to ballpark equipment for the players. Cheer will be letting girls take uniforms home to try them on.
- VIII. Managers Reports
 - a. Football – the KVC would like each community to do an analysis for the number of players if we moved to age-based levels. They are still waiting to see what the MHSAA's plans are for a fall football season. The league has also a new website and will be merging with SportsEngine.
 - b. Cheer/Pom – They had a league meeting.
 - c. Equipment – Riddell will be starting production in mid to late May. We should be receiving helmets in early June. Mike has the reconditioned shoulder pads at his house. We will try and order jerseys in mid-June.
 - d. Registration- We have 204 registrations so far. Many people are holding off because they are unsure if there will be a season. We have sent out reminders that we will be offering full refunds.
 - e. Volunteer- Nothing.
 - f. Events- Nothing.
 - g. Concessions- Nothing
- IX. Upcoming Calendar – What to expect in June – any update on the season.
- X. Adjournment –6:32pm Mike motioned, Evelyn 2nd all approved.
