Description of Organization and Its Mission:

"To mentor at risk youth and teach life lessons through mentorship, education, and sport." We are a 100 percent volunteer nonprofit organisation that provides club level soccer to youth between the ages of 14 and 19 without following the pay-to-play policy, but instead holding players accountable for achieving good grades and behaviour in school and the community, teaching resilience and accountability, and mentoring them throughout high school and the transition into college.

Volunteer Support Needed?
