

KRISTEN TUPAC

Kristen Tupac is currently an Assistant Coach/Recruiting Coordinator for the University of North Dakota Volleyball Team. A former professional, she played 5 years internationally, 3 years with the USA Women's National Team, and 1 year with the Athletes Unlimited Professional League. During her time with the USAWNT, she won a Gold Medal at the 2014 NORCECA World Championship Qualifier and received Best Libero and Best Receiver awards.

She was a 3x All American and 3x Big 12 Libero of the Year at Iowa State and one of the most decorated collegiate liberos of all time, holding multiple Big 12 records, including two Hall of Fame inductions. She has coaching experience at the collegiate, club and high school level, both in the United States and internationally.

