4 LONG TERM DEVELOPMENT (LTD) 3.0

Long-Term Development (LTD) in Sport and Physical Activity is a framework for the development of every child, youth, and adult to enable optimal participation in sport and physical activity. It takes into account growth, maturation and development, trainability, and sport system alignment.

8 WHY IS CHANGE NEEDED?

With the release of the Long-Term Development Model 3.0 by Canadian Sport for Life (S4L), it became apparent that our competition system needed adjustments to address shortfalls and enhance the competition system's ability to develop 11U-15U athletes in the Learn to Train (L2T) and Train to Train (T2T) stages.

10 THE EARLY CONTACT INITIATIVE (ECI)

The Early Contact Initiative (ECI) is a set of rules and an evolution of the competition pathway that will help clubs find developmentally appropriate opportunities for their young players while giving them the best experience possible for long term retention and success.

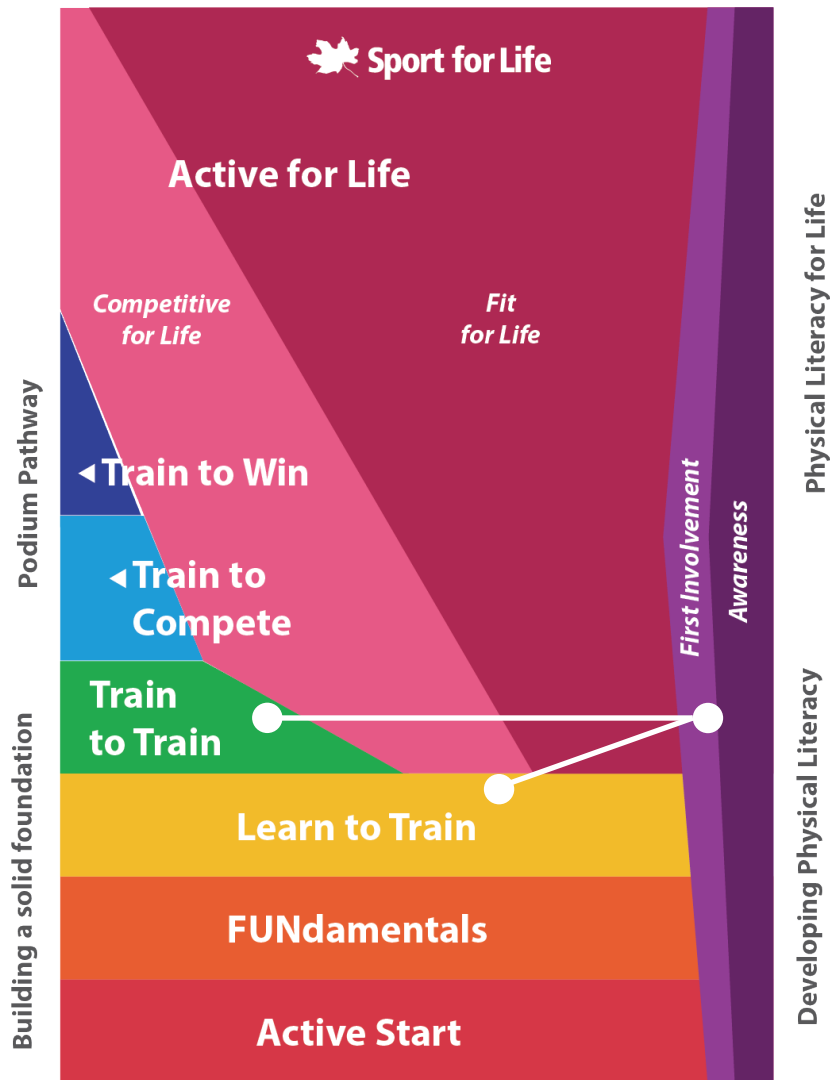

13 THE ECI COMPETITION STREAM

An overview of the OVA Early Contact competition streams featuring the 4v4 Rallyball, 6v6 Rallyball, Traditional Limited-Specialized and its alignment to the LTD 3.0 Model.

18 ENTRY POINT SUMMARY

A detailed outline of the Early Contact rules for each of the 4v4 Rallyball, 6v6 Rallyball and Traditional Limited-Specialized stream.

The Long Term Development in Sport and Physical Activity 3.0 Model

First Involvement and Awareness are integral components of everyone's initial experience in sport and physical activity. Physical literacy, while vital during the early stages, is not confined to the early stages—it can and should continue to be developed throughout the life course. The OVA's Early Contact Initiative seeks to better connect the LTD's First Involvement and Awareness to the Learn to Train and Train to Train Stages for athlete development.

LTD 3.0

"Long-Term Development in Sport and Physical Activity is a framework for the development of every child, youth, and adult to enable optimal participation in sport and physical activity. It takes into account growth, maturation and development, trainability, and sport system alignment"

What's new and enhanced in this 3rd edition?

The objective of the framework is to promote both sporting excellence at the highest international level and life-long engagement in health-enhancing physical activity. This third edition brings a number of important updates and enhancements.

From Sport and Physical Activity to Quality Sport and Physical Activity:

Not all sport and physical activity experiences are good. We want "good programs, delivered by good people, in good places." Good programs are developmentally appropriate, based on the physical, cognitive, emotional and moral stages of development of participants. Quality sport and physical activity ensures that safe sport is an essential element for all people involved.

From Long-Term Athlete Development to Long-Term Development in Sport and Physical Activity: The new name is more inclusive and retains the critical concept of good development as a lengthy process, while becoming more accessible to those in the recreation, education, and health sectors.

Physical literacy has evolved: There has been an increased emphasis on the psychological components of physical literacy, including confidence and motivation as well as social connectedness, which are all critical for physical literacy development through the life course.

More emphasis on the adolescent participant: Adolescence is a time when many youth become less active and involved with sport and physical activity, while others develop into high performance athletes. We provide more insight into the wider needs of the adolescent athlete in this Early Contact Initiative model.

"Physical literacy is the motivation, confidence, physical competence, knowledge, and understanding to value and take responsibility for engagement in physical activities for life."

Over the fall and winter months (2020-2021) and in partnership with the Indoor Volleyball Development Committee (IVDC), the EARLY CONTACT INITIATIVE was created to address the specific needs of our entry point athletes.

The Indoor Volleyball Development Committee (IVDC), of the OVA was made up of 11 people from an array of clubs across the province. Boys and Girls volleyball, big city, big club, small town, small club, are all represented. This committee was tasked with helping restructure the OVA youth competitions model to better align with the principles of the new Long Term Development 3.0 document, as laid out by Sport Canada and Volleyball Canada.

Quality Sport

Quality sport based on Long Term Development in Sport and Physical Activity is ...

... leading to
individual excellence and optimum health

These pages and diagrams are extracts of the: The Canadian Sport for Life Long Term Development \(LTD 3.0\)

GUIDING PRINCIPLES Long-Term Development in Sport and Physical Activity is built on four guiding principles:

QUALITY

IS KEY

Every child, youth and adult deserves a quality experience every time they participate in physical activity or sport. Quality means good programs, in good places, delivered by good people.

OPTIMAL

PROGRAMMING IS CRITICAL

This means giving every participant in sport and physical activity what they need, when they need it, and in the way they need it to make the most progress. Optimization is participant centred and developmentally appropriate.

INCLUSION

IS NON-NEGOTIABLE

Inclusion is both the removal of physical, cultural, economic, and attitudinal barriers to participation, and the designing of activities so that individuals are not excluded. Being allowed to take part is not enough. Every participant must feel safe, welcomed, and included. Supports need to be in place to engage and support the diverse needs of participants, across all the dimensions that make up that individual. Every program and service should be set up to welcome all—inclusion is a topic because our system currently excludes. We must reframe to: everyone has the opportunity, and exclusion is the exception rather than the norm.

COLLABORATION

MAKES THE SYSTEM BETTER

Individuals and organizations will deliver more quality experiences when they work together. Communities, sport organizations, and the health and education sectors all benefit from alignment of programming and collaboration. For example, one participant may be active in different sports or physical activities, including recreation or club programs, physical education, as well as school sport. If the organizations pull that participant in different directions, good development is less likely to happen. Through system alignment, participants are the winners.

You can learn more about Long Term Development (LTD 3.0) via the Canadian Sport for Life Website or access the document directly HERE.

WHY IS CHANGE NEEDED?

“The OVA has worked to align our new competition streams with research-based and LTD defined characteristics of a quality, positive, developmentally beneficial youth sport experience”

This change was proposed to our Youth Competition Structure in order to implement more of the Long Term Development (LTD) Model with a focus on the following core principles:

- Increase the Fun Factor and Inclusiveness with Fair Play and Limited-Specialization at the younger ages while transitioning into the Traditional game as athletes and teams progress
- Emphasize “Stage of Development” rather than “Chronological Age”
- Support efficient periodization
- Delay specialization
- Provide flexibility for clubs and coaches to choose what is best for their players and provide them with a fun and developmentally appropriate experience
- Remove adult training and competition programs we impose on developing athletes by making the game fit the players
- Reduce the time and costs of travel, accommodations and meals
- Allow athletes to develop at their own pace
- Place the health and needs of kids first!

CHARACTERISTICS OF A PROGRAM THAT PUTS THE HEALTH AND NEEDS OF KIDS FIRST

Source:
The Canadian Sport for Life Long Term Development \(LTD 3.0\)

Childhood success is not a reliable predictor of future success

Young people are different and development does not occur in a straight forward manner-or at the same speed. Competitive sporting opportunities need to reflect this rather than investing (time and money) in just those who show the most promise at a young age. All young people deserve quality sport experiences and the opportunity to shine.

A focus on winning rather than on development

It's time to stop focusing on high performance and overemphasizing 'winning' in youth sport. This approach is creating a lack of balance and leads to high workload and high pressure for children too soon. A focus on development and getting better is what young people want and what successful athletes and people focus on.

Identifying athletes early and specializing early on is taking its toll on young people

Too many young people are specializing in one sport in the belief that this is the best way for them to develop into elite adults. In truth, burnout, overuse injuries and declining motivation are more likely to be outcomes of early specialization. Sport leaders need to delay selection decisions, proactively managing young people at risk of overtraining and overloading and find ways to keep them involved in a range of quality experiences in competitive sport - for longer.

Remember why young people participate in sport - it's about fun, the challenge, being part of a team or group, being with friends and self-improvement

WHAT IS THE EARLY CONTACT INITIATIVE?

"The Early Contact Initiative is a set of rules and an evolution of the competition pathway that will help clubs find developmentally appropriate opportunities for their young players while giving them the best experience possible for long term retention and success"

Developmentally appropriate competition formats = better access to volleyball for late entry athletes i.e. not chronological age based competitions.

Gaps identified after reviewing the OVA competition stream for 11-14U included: early specialization; barriers of entry (cost, travel, etc); length of playing days, poor periodization and over emphasis on results.

Once these were identified, the OVA staff, in collaboration with the Indoor Development Committee (IVDC), designed the Early Contact initiative.

The ECI is designed to assist players, coaches, and administrators with finding the appropriate entry point along the pathway of volleyball in Ontario.

Clubs will now have more flexible and developmentally-appropriate competition opportunities for their younger players while providing the best experience possible for long term retention and success.

The Early Contact Initiative focuses on several key factors, including:

- Delaying specialization to avoid burnout, injury and limited development
- Increased focus on development over winning
- Offering age and stage appropriate development activities with improved playing formats such as 4v4 Rallyball, 6v6 and Traditional Limited-Specialized (TLS)

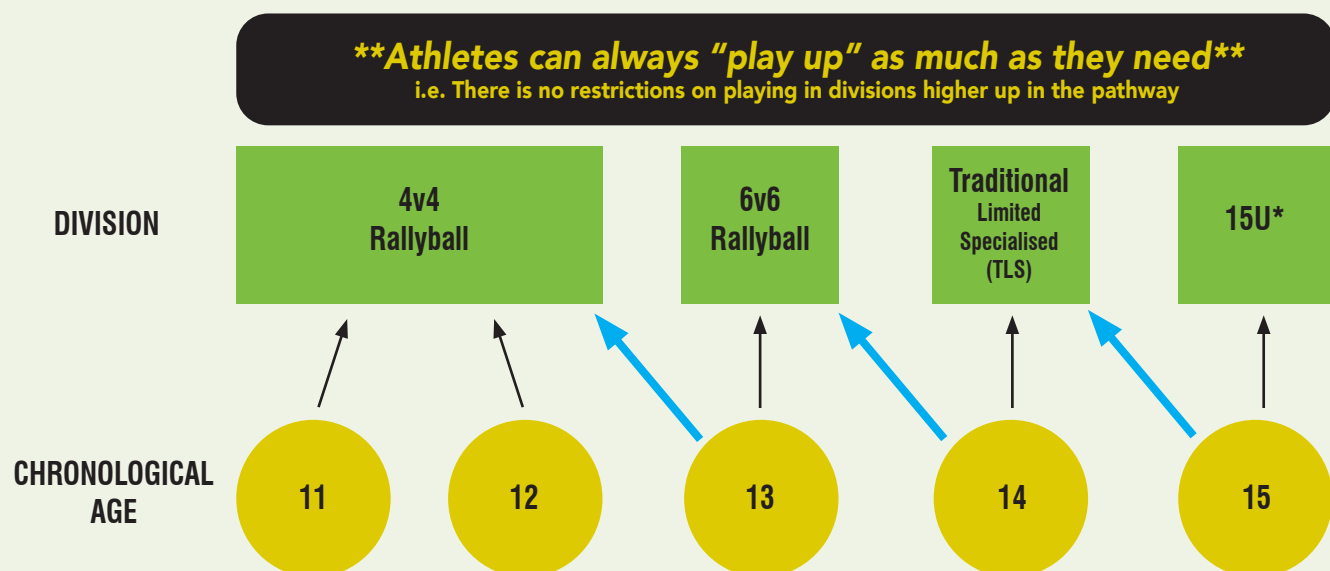

- Ensuring court size and net height are appropriate to physical and cognitive stage development
- Ensuring this first experience is fun, enjoyable and occurs in child-friendly environments
- Ensuring kids fall in love with the game through fun and inclusive games
- Supporting coaches so they will make the volleyball experience a challenging, positive and nurturing one for all young players regardless of ability, leading to Volleyball for Life.

FEWER PLAYERS ON COURT

PLAYERS MORE INVOLVED

MORE BALL TOUCHES

MORE FUN & ENGAGEMENT

Experience has shown that the level of difficulty of 6v6 for kids under 13 years old significantly decreases the number of participants who join volleyball and decreases the number of opportunities to develop many aspects of the game, other than serving and receiving.

In environments where volleyball has been adapted to lengthen the number of exchanges and promote the success of individual actions, tens of thousands of players are experiencing success, discovering, and staying in our sport.

4v4 RALLYBALL

- Format geared towards entry level teams and athletes or those wanting more touches to be successful at the next level
- Less players on court = players more involved and more touches
- Rallyball follows Volleyball Canada's Tripleball rules
- All events are developmentally focused and maximize number of games played
- Development of a membership and fee structure to eliminate cost barrier
- 2-day Ontario Championship with medals.

The setter position must remain the same for the entire set. The freeball introduction toss can be directed to position 5 or 6. The toss must be consistent each match. f). Free balls must be received with a forearm pass, otherwise a replay will occur. g). An overpass from the free ball toss is not a re-toss. Play continues. h). When serving, players cannot switch positions after the serve. Players must remain in their rotational order until the ball crosses back to their side of the net. Once the ball crosses back over to their side, normal volleyball movement is allowed during the play, but players must comeback to their rotational order once the ball is sent to the other side of the net. i). When in serve reception, the players’ serve reception configuration needs to be the same throughout the set along with the designated setter position. Common Misinterpretations of the Rule: Teams can isolate players in serve reception in certain rotations FALSE: Teams need to keep the same serve-reception configuration through the whole set. A position can be isolated (ex. Athlete in position 1), but that position needs to be consistently isolated throughout the set. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> j). To improve the follow of the game, it is recommended that each team provide a ball retriever who collects the balls from athletes at the end of a rally. Please remain a safe distance from the court during play. Continued on next page ...

	6V6 RALLYBALL
Playing Regulations (continued)	Guidelines for Tossers: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Head Coach, Assistant Coach or a competent volunteer may be the Tosser and introduce balls to their own team. 2. Balls are tossed underhand with two hands, with little to no spin and above the height of the antennae to allow athletes time to play the ball. 3. The Tosser can step into the court to introduce the ball but must immediately move a safe distance away from the court after the toss. 4. The free ball will be introduced directly to the athlete in position 5 or 6, otherwise a replay will occur. 5. The free ball will be introduced when the front row players are at the net and ready to transition; the Tosser verbally cues the athletes by calling "Free Ball". Tossers encourage a fast-paced transition between an end of a rally and the next toss.
