I further understand and recognize that my health and safety is the most important thing and without disclosing all injuries and or illnesses, it can not be properly determined if you are in the physical condition necessary to participate. I understand that I must provide a full and accurate medical history including any symptoms, health complaints and any prior injuries and/or disabilities I have experienced before, during or after athletic activities.

By signing below, I acknowledge:

- My organization has provided me with specific educational materials including the CDC Concussion fact sheet (<http://www.cdc.gov/concussion>) on what a concussion is and has given me an opportunity to ask questions.
- I ACKNOWLEDGE THAT I HAVE READ THE FACT SHEET on the CDC website for Parents and Players.
- I have fully disclosed to the staff any prior medical conditions and will also disclose any future conditions.
- There is a possibility that participation in my sport may result in a head injury and/or concussion. In rare cases, these concussions can cause permanent brain damage, and even death.
- A concussion is a brain injury, which I am responsible for reporting to the team physician, athletic trainer, coach, parent volunteer, or official.
- A concussion can affect my ability to perform everyday activities, and affect my reaction time, balance, sleep, and classroom performance.
- Some of the symptoms of concussion may be noticed right away while other symptoms can show up hours or days after the injury.

While 99% of the adults in the program will abide by this code without being told, this code is being published to protect the children and volunteers (which includes all coaches and board members) from the 1%.

FANS' CODE OF CONDUCT

Fans will abide by a Code of Conduct which includes the provisions which follow. If any of these rules are broken, _____ shall have the authority to impose a penalty.

Fans shall:

2. Accept decisions of the game officials (including referees and coaches) on the field as being fair and called to the best ability of said officials.
3. Not criticize an opposing team, its players, coaches, or fans by work of mouth or by gesture.
4. Refrain from using physical or verbal abuse or profane language at any time at the game, practice field, or other AYF functions.

8. Not express complaints about coaches in stands or to coaches in front of or around the children (i.e. right after a game or practice).

VIOLATION

Any parent or fan who violates the code of conduct risks the further participation of the child in the program. The procedure is as follows:

1. Any fan who violates the code of conduct or becomes a nuisance will be asked to leave by the head coach and can be suspended from all team activities.
2. If the fan fails to leave upon request, the child may be suspended from further participation in team activities by the head coach.
3. The head coach along with the executive board will decide if the duration of the suspension is to be longer than one to four weeks or if the child will be dropped from the program. That decision will depend on the attitude of the parents.
4. Any parent or fan who violates the code of conduct risks the future participation of his/her children in the program. Depending on the severity of the incident the board of directors may decide to ban future participation in the program for up to three years.

GLASTONBURY YOUTH FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION EXPECTATIONS FOR ALL ADULTS

INTRODUCTION

While it is a privilege and honor to represent one's community while participating in the Glastonbury Youth Football Association, it is recognized that the primary participants are children. Therefore, it is contingent upon the adults to encourage by example and to show the proper guidance among the young athletes. The following Code of Conduct shall be in effect for all adults participating in GYFA programs. This includes board members, coaches, managers, parents and guardians.

EXPECTATIONS

- Be positive with your athlete; let them know that they are accomplishing something simply by being part of the team. Encourage your athlete to play for the love of the game.
- Don't offer excuses to your athlete if they are not playing. There is usually a reason for it. Encourage your athlete to work hard and do their best.
- Don't put down the coaches or other athletes. If you are constantly berating your athlete's coach, do not expect positive results from the season. Be supportive in a positive way.
- Insist on good grades. Check the number of hours your athlete spends on homework.
- Don't try to live your life vicariously through your athlete.
- Being a fan (supporter!!) does not entitle you to be belligerent or abusive toward players, coaches or officials. Coaches work with athletes and know their talents. Respect that. Also, consider that sons and daughters are often embarrassed by parents who can be heard from the stands.
- Insist that your athlete respect team rules, game officials and sportsmanship. Don't let them embarrass their family, program and team by a rude gesture or incident. Self-respect begins with self-control.
- Remember that the coach is involved as a coach because they are sincerely fond of children and have experience coaching. Coaches have different ways of dealing with people and situations.
- At a competition, you represent GYFA and you should be a positive role model.
- Be involved in a positive way. Cheer for all kids on the team. Help by volunteering. There are hundreds of ways to be involved with the team and be a good parent at the same time.

Pursuing or threatening to pursue legal action against GYFA or any of its board members is in direct conflict with continuing participation in the program. By pursuing such legal action, it is understood that those involved are voluntarily removing themselves, and their families, from GYFA participation immediately.

Adult participants failing to meet the expectations above shall face disciplinary action which is to be conducted in accordance with the rules and regulations of due process of the GYFA Board of Directors. This action could include adult suspension/expulsion from GYFA and/or suspension/expulsion of a child due to a parent/guardians behavior, as deemed appropriate by the President and Executive Board.
