

TEAM PARENT EXPECTATIONS

The Head Coach is responsible for overall organization and control of the team, including delegating responsibilities to the team parent. Provided below are some of the typical responsibilities of a team parent. Responsibilities will vary by age group. Team Parents should meet with the Head Coach and develop an understanding of the coach's expectations during the season.

Thanks for volunteering to help!!

Typical Team Parent Responsibilities

- Manage the dugout during games (e.g., keeps kids orderly, keep track of batting order and make sure the players are ready when they are up, have the kids ready to take the field with hats on their heads and gloves on their hands, etc.).
- Develop and run a calling tree and e-mail list to notify parents of team information (e.g., pictures, practice schedule, rain-out notification, etc.).
- Coordinate team pictures (e.g., notify parents of picture date and time, make sure picture forms are distributed, and distribute pictures).
- Coordinate with the league Fundraising chairman for the fundraising contest for your team.
- Coordinate an end of year team party.
- Develop a snack schedule (younger players). Remember, each player gets a free pop at the concession stand after their game.
- Notify parents about volunteer time requirement and assist them in signing up for their volunteer hours.
- Be proactive!!!
