BY THE NUMBERS

MEETINGS: 24

SAINT IGNATIUS WINS: 13

MENTOR WINS: 11

TIES: 0

At Mentor Stadiums: 5-4

Facts to know: The Wildcats defeated Mentor in the 2011 Regional Final 23-17 and went on to win their 11th State Championship.

RIVALRY RETURNS: Mentor vs. Saint Ignatius has become a great rivalry in Northeast Ohio as every contest seems to have a playoff atmosphere. The Wildcats are no strangers to the Cardinals when it comes to the regular season and playoffs, as this will be the 25th meeting between these two programs. The last game came in week two of the 2019 season, where Mentor edged out Saint Ignatius, winning 38-31.

TOMPKINS CREW: Patrick Tompkins earned a role in the Wildcats starting wide receiver group for his senior season and had an excellent 2021 season debut, becoming the main target for quarterback Joey Pfaff. Tompkins a week ago caught five balls for 115 yards vs. Springfield. Tompkins has the chance to open the passing lanes for others in Steven Bodamer, Sean Ward and Colin Vollmer.

MARTY TIME: Last week, the rushing attack went against a tough defense in Springfield; however, the ground game still racked up 131 yards. Marty Lenehan led the way with 20 rushes for 84 yards, picking up two touchdowns. Lenehan gave the Wildcats the lead on their first offensive drive with a 22-yard touchdown run. He added one more before the half to give the Cats a 17-10 lead heading into halftime. Joey Georges was the rotational back, getting ten carries for 25 yards.

FEROCIOUS FRONT: Returning for the Cats vs. Mentor will be senior nose guard Thomas Wasinski. Despite missing Wasinski a week ago, the defensive line was terrific. Senior Peter Chalhoub got two sacks on dual-threat quarterback Te'Sean Smoot, making life difficult for the Springfield offensive line. Last Friday night, Will Robinson, Ryan Boomer, and Joseph Kause were key role players for the defensive front.

AERNI'S QUARTET: At middle backer is Christopher Aerni. Aerni last week totaled three tackles. Aerni has great recognition of offensive schemes and will be a leader for the linebacker core. Surrounding him is senior Gavin Berger, senior Blase Mastrianni and junior Max Palinski.

SECONDARY SPECIALIST: The Wildcats secondary came away with two interceptions in week one vs. Springfield. Senior Braeden Lair would pick off the opening pass from Smoot, giving the Wildcats offense an early chance. Jack Mangan added in a pick as well in the fourth quarter last Friday night.

IN ELDRIDGE WE TRUST: Zeb Eldridge connected on two field goals in week one. Eldridge hit on a 28-yard and 44-yard kick. All five kick-offs were touchbacks and two punts averaged 25-yards.

OH CAPTAIN, MY CAPTAIN: The captains for the 2021 season are #22 Marty Lenehan, #34 Christopher Aerni, #95 Peter Chalhoub and #99 Thomas Wasinski.

ABOUT MENTOR ...

Learning about the Cardinals ...

SNOW IN AUGUST: Jacob Snow is the signal-caller for the Mentor Cardinals in 2021 and shined in his 2021 regular-season debut. The junior received great experience in 2020 after starting in the Division I State Semifinal game vs. Pickerington Central. Snow got the nod in last year's State Semifinal game when All-Ohio quarterback Ian Kipp was under COVID contact tracing protocol. A week ago vs. Canton McKinley, Snow threw for 181 yards and four touchdowns on 12 of 15 passing in the rout against the Bulldogs. Snow is quick on his feet as well, adding in another 53 yards on the ground.

GROUND & POUND: In what was a great showing by Snow with the aerial attack was an even better performance on the ground by the Cardinals running backs. Brendon Panhorst broke the century mark rushing for 116 yards on 16 carries. Mentor totaled an impressive 335 yards rushing in the win vs. Canton McKinley.

RETURNING STARTERS: There is one returning starter in the Cardinals receiving core and that is Evan Harper. The Cardinals return three offensive line starters from a season ago in Ethan Bostelman, Brandon Ryan and Danny Call. Only three starters return on defense for Mentor. Despite having a young roster, plenty of letter winners from the 2020 playoff run look to use that experience to help them flourish in 2021.

STACK THE BOX: The Mentor Cardinals have one of the highest-ranked juniors in the nation as Brenan Vernon locks down the defensive line. Vernon is a five-star recruit committed to play at the University of Notre Dame. Vernon is a returning starter from a Mentor team that made a trip to the Division I State Semifinal a season ago. Vernon is 6'5", 260 lbs, and will acquire significant attention from any offensive line. The Cardinals also return senior linebacker Aiden Fellows, who can hurt an offense with his blitzing ability and play recognition in coverage.

SECONDARY: The Cardinals' Chris Finucan was unfortunately injured in the week one win against the Bulldogs. Finucan is a captain for the defense and suffered a serious injury but is making strides to return to the field. Finucan is a captain of the team for the Cardinals. Locking down the secondary will be Michael Harrison, a returning starter for Mentor. Other key pieces for Mentor will be Jimmy Schonauer and Tyler Wilkinson. Mentor's defense held Canton McKinley to just seven points in the win.

WR PATRICK TOMPKINS '22

Senior Patrick Tompkins was an offensive standout in week one's match-up against the Springfield Wildcats.

Tompkins racked up 115 yards on five receptions in week one, averaging 23 yards per catch. The longest was a 33-yard reception where quarterback Joey Pfaff found Tompkins on a crossing route to convert on third and long.

Tompkins has emerged as a leader of the wide receiving core after week vs. Springfield as the Cats seek their first win of the new campaign in Mentor.

The extra attention on Tompkins may open up the passing lanes for Bodamer, Vollmer and Ward.

DL THOMAS WASINSKI '22

Thomas Wasinski returns to the Saint Ignatus defense after missing week one due to an injury.

The 5'10" 255 lbs nose tackle adds more versatility to the Cats defensive line.

Wasinski, in the 2020 season, was responsible for 16 tackles, 1.5 of them being for a loss and 1.5 sacks.

Wasinski was a grinder during the off-season as he cut 20 lbs off him and is significantly leaner and quicker off the block.

Wasinski can also be used on the offensive side on the goal line as he can be used as a blocking back for the offense.

With the return of Wasinski, the defensive line adds more muscle alongside Peter Chalhoub, Will Robinson, Ryan Boomer, Eugene Gibbons and Joseph Kause.

JEROME T. OSBORNE, SR. STADIUM at Mentor

6477 Center St., Mentor, OH

Built: 1983

Renovated: 2006

Playing Surface: Field Turf

Seating Capacity: 8,000

Record at Jerome T Osborne, Sr. Stadium: 5-4

While Mentor High School was built on its current site in 1965, the field now called Jerome T. Osborne Stadium was not constructed until the early 1980's.

For 20 years, the facility was named Cardinal Stadium. In 2006, the stadium received a major renovation. New field turf and a video scoreboard were installed as part of the renovation. The original field turf was replaced before the start of the 2014 season, with a new 60-foot wide Cardinal logo emblazoned at midfield. The Osborne Family financed the original renovations with a $1 million donation.

The Cardinals have a record of 80-9 at home since the upgrades were made to the stadium.

Mentor football has a tradition of excellence, which is on full, permanent display at the top of the home bleachers at The JTO. Two coaches, eight players and six teams are remembered with signs on the back of the top row of bleachers under the pressbox on the home side of the stadium.

Dick Crum, who notched a record of 50-9-1 from 1963-1968, and Dr. Lee Tressel, who was 44-9 from 1950-1955, are in the coaches section. Dan Ryczek, Rick Galbos, Paul Ryczek, Don Martin, Tom Barndt, Bob Hallen, Bart Tanksi and Mitch Trubisky are honored with painted replicas of their jerseys in the players' section. The six teams included in the initial ring of honor at the JTO include the 1955 team (10-0), 1968 (10-0), 2003 (12-1), 2006 (13-2, state runner-up), 2007 (11-3, state runner-up) and 2012 (12-2, state semifinalist).

GAME PREVIEW

WILDCATS LOOK TO BOUNCE BACK AFTER WEEK ONE LOSS

Despite the week one loss vs. the Springfield Wildcats, there were plenty of positive takeaways to open the season. In week one, the Wildcats played with great intensity but unfortunately saw their lead stripped in the final five minutes vs. Springfield.

"Looking at our schedule, there are no breathers," says Head Football Coach Chuck Kyle '69. "We are going to have to be our best every game, and I think our kids caught on to that."

SAINT IGNATIUS OFFENSE VS. MENTOR DEFENSE

The Wildcats dominated the time of possession in their week one contest vs. Springfield, controlling the football for 39 minutes. "Offensively, we kept the ball away from them," says Kyle. "We played the field position game well and limited their time with the ball."

A week ago, senior running back Marty Lenehan proved his importance in the offense, providing two touchdowns on the ground with 20 carries and 84 yards. While senior Patrick Tompkins hauled in five receptions for 115 yards. Both skill players will need to continue their flashes of excellence against a hard-nose Mentor defense.

"I want to see our receivers get more involved this week," says coach Kyle. "We set a goal to be percentage-wise better when throwing the football and we were not happy with our throwing percentage last week."

The standout on the Cardinals defense is junior defensive lineman Brenan Vernon, a University of Notre Dame commit. "Defensively, their front six is tremendous," explains Kyle. "This will be an interesting match-up to see how the running game will do and how much time we'll have in the pocket on a passing play."

The Cardinals started the 2021 season on a high note with a dominating 49-7 victory against the Canton McKinley Bulldogs. The defense for Mentor controlled the tempo of the ball game, offering excellent field position for their offense.

Coach Kyle has great respect for Mentor's program and knows that each game against Mentor traditionally comes down to the fourth quarter. Limiting turnovers appear to be the main emphasis for the Wildcats heading into week two vs. Mentor. The Cats offense hurt themselves vs. Springfield, turning the ball three times, including the game-winning pick-six by Springfield's Micha Johnson.

"We have to clean up our turnovers; in big games, those just can't happen," Kyle explains. "We had two turnovers last week vs. Springfield, and we gave away a quarter of football."

The Wildcats will look to clean up the offense against Mentor while continuing to dominate the time of possession and limit the Cardinals with the football to collect their first win of the 2021 campaign.

SAINT IGNATIUS DEFENSE VS. MENTOR OFFENSE

The Wildcat defense showed plenty of bright spots in week one, forcing two turnovers against Springfield. Braeden Lair and Jack Mangan both came away with interceptions and the defense held firm to force a turnover on downs midway through the third quarter. The defense was impressive, limiting the Springfield offense to just 45 yards on the ground. The Wildcat defense will look to build off their week one intensity and bring home a blue and gold winner from Mentor.

"Our defense kept Springfield one dimensional and we want to continue that moving forward," explains Kyle. "Some strange things happened in the last five minutes, but that is something we'll just have to live with."

Starting at quarterback will be junior Jacob Snow. Snow a week ago vs. Canton McKinley threw for four touchdowns on 12 of 15 passing with 181 yards in the win vs. the Bulldogs.

"These kids are veterans whether they started last year or not," Kyle explains. "You notice that right away with how Mentor executes because they look like they are mid-season form."

A bright spot for the Saint Ignatius defense is the return of captain Thomas Wasinski who missed week one due to an injury. The defensive front for the Wildcats will look to have a huge ball game with a healthy line. Peter Chalhoub is coming off a two-sack performance, while Will Robinson added 3.5 tackles in the defensive end position. The defensive line will seek to carry the same amount of ferocity that was shown in week one.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Zeb Eldridge was 2-4 last week in Springfield; despite missing his first two kicks, the senior kicker rebounded to make his next two from 28 and 44-yards. Eldridge punted twice in the loss to Springfield, averaging 25-yards a punt. He also did not offer a return for Springfield as all five kick-offs went into the back of the endzone for a touchback.

"I think we did an excellent job in the kicking game last week," says Kyle. "We missed a couple of kicks, but that'll happen, but our kick-offs went into the endzone and punts were effective."

Saint Ignatius is no stranger to the Mentor Cardinals; this will be the 25th meeting between the two programs. There has been plenty of history in the last decade and games typically are wire-to-wire. Kick-off will be at 7 p.m. from Jerome T. Osborne Senior Stadium in Mentor.

Wildcats Fall Late to Springfield in Opener

By Joe Mertens '15

The 2021 regular season kicked off for the Saint Ignatius Wildcats on the road in Springfield Friday night as the Wildcats fell to Springfield 20-24 in a thriller. Clutch plays made late in the fourth quarter by Springfield gave them a week one victory as a Micha Johnson pick-six was the game-winning play by Springfield.

On the opening play from scrimmage, senior Braeden Lair would pick off Te'Sean Smoot to give the Wildcats an early offensive possession.

Saint Ignatius would have a methodical drive on offense, dominating the time of possession and moving the ball down the field. Senior captain Marty Lenehan opened up the night of scoring as he broke away from the Springfield defense, staying up-right on his way to the 22-yard touchdown.

Springfield would strike on a deep play late in the first quarter as Smoot connected with Anthony Brown for a 74-yard touchdown reception on a streak route past the Saint Ignatius secondary. With the PAT, Springfield would knot the game at seven apiece.

The Wildcats of Springfield would take their first lead of the night at the 8:23 mark of the second quarter as Cole Yost connected on a 27-yard field goal to give Springfield a 10-7 lead. Saint Ignatius would strike back late in the second quarter to retake the lead as Lenehan would scamper in for an 11-yard touchdown run, his second of the night.

The Saint Ignatius defense would remain stout to end the second quarter, giving the offense a late chance in the half to tack on to their lead. Senior kicker Zeb Eldridge hit a field goal from 28-yards out to give Saint Ignatius a 17-10 lead heading to the break.

Looking to push their lead to a two-possession game in the fourth quarter. Springfield would keep the Wildcats out of the endzone, but a 44-yard field goal by Eldridge gave Saint Ignatius a 20-10 lead with 10:13 left to play in regulation.

The Saint Ignatius offense began to burn time off the clock, but Springfield's Jokell Brown would come away with a fumble recovery, giving the ball back to Springfield's explosive offense. The turning point of the ball game came near the four-minute mark as Springfield was staring at a fourth and long from their own 21-yard line. Smoot found his target Daylen Bradley on a slant route for a 56-yard reception to continue the possession for Springfield. In the proceeding play, Smoot connected to Shawn Thigpen for a 26-yard touchdown reception to pull Springfield within three with 3:38 remaining in the game.

Following the Springfield touchdown, Saint Ignatius was backed up in their own territory, looking at a third and 16. Senior Joey Pfaff went back to pass and was picked off by Johnson, who would go 34-yards on a pick-six to give Springfield a late 24-20 lead with 2:57 remaining in regulation.

Saint Ignatius would begin with excellent field position after the unsportsmanlike conduct penalty on Springfield. The Cats would get the ball inside the Springfield 20-yard line but was stopped on fourth and long.

With a minute left to play in the game, Smoot would take it upon himself to give Springfield a week one winner as on a third and five; he found just enough room to provide Springfield with the game-sealing first down.

Pfaff would finish the game, completing 12 of his 30 passes for 163 yards and one interception. His favorite target was senior Patrick Tompkins, who caught five passes for 115 yards.

Next for the Wildcats is a trip to Mentor to take on the 1-0 Cardinals at Jerome T. Osbourne Senior Stadium at 7 p.m. The Cardinals are coming off an impressive 49-7 victory against Canton McKinley at Tom Benson Hall of Fame Stadium last Friday night. Despite the opening week loss by the Wildcats, there were plenty of positive takeaways that the Cats hope to take on the road to Mentor.
