A Passion for Women's Hockey...

What began as a Sunday morning game with her family has become a passion for Minnesota's "old lady of hockey" – Jane Ring. Long after she hangs up her skates, Jane Ring's love of the sport will live on through The Jane Ring/Sue Ring-Jarvi Girls'/Women's Hockey Fund.

When she was 47 years old, Jane took up the sport to play with her family and said, "It was so much fun, I stayed with it." More than 25 years later, she is still very much with it.

"I have a passion for hockey. A lot of people involved with the sport know me as 'the old lady of hockey' now," she said, "I hope these young girls are looking at me and thinking, 'Wow, I still have at least 40 more years to skate.'"

Jane and her daughter Sue Ring-Jarvi have been instrumental in starting girls' and women's hockey throughout Minnesota over the last 25 years.

Contributions

Jane's hope is that other supporters of women's hockey will contribute to the fund, which will allow more students to be helped. You can join Jane in supporting girls' and women's hockey in Minnesota.
