

John Saunders – Varsity/JV Linebackers Coach

Coach Saunders enters his 6th season helping the Huskie linebackers on the defensive side of the ball. He works with both the inside and outside LB's to identify their primary responsibilities, pass coverages and key run reads.

Playing as a linebacker throughout his own career, Coach Saunders was a three-year varsity letter winner at Yale University (1991-1993) and was selected captain of the team his senior year. After earning All-Ivy honors that year, he was selected to start in the Epson Ivy Bowl in Tokyo, Japan and spent part of the 1995 season on the Denver Bronco's practice squad.

John and his wife Leann, have three children (Kenneth, Hannah and Katie) all of which were Douglas County Huskies!
