Player Financial Eligibility

Player Eligibility – Policy Statement

“Any player account that has a negative balance of more than $75 at the end of each month shall be suspended from all activities and may not participate in any training or games until the balance is paid in full. For families of 2 or more kids, the balance needs to be $150 or less.

While every effort is made to post fundraising credits as quickly as possible, players should not count on fundraising credits to be posted in order to remain eligible, but should plan to submit payments until the credits actually appear.”

Player Eligibility- How it is Determined

- Balance looked at is from the month prior
- Example
 - Received November 30th statement
 - Did not pay that statement by December 31st.
 - Player will be considered ineligible on January 1st.

Player Eligibility- Consequences

- Ineligible players are suspended from all activities and may not participate in any training or games until the balance is paid in full.
- Coaches and Managers will notify the Player Account Manger if a player is arriving to participate.
- Please work with the Player Account Manger to bring your account current.
- Overall – It affects your team’s ability to attend tournaments
