INTERVIEW OF THE WEEK

JOE "INKWELL" - former owner of the Inkwell Restaurant in Long Branch. Ace caught up with him in California at the Betty Ford Clinic.

Q. You have a very interesting wardrobe. Where do you do your shopping?
A. MBE Discount in Deal.

Q. Why did you sell your share of The Inkwell?
A. Several reasons. The F.D.A. wanted me to get rid of the roaches in the kitchen and to buy new tablecloths and I refused on both. Also, there were too many people buying only a soda and staying for 2 hours.

Q. Who was your most memorable customer?
A. There was this one guy, I don't know his name, but he was so cheap that he used to order water and lemon instead of lemonade. I ran into him recently and he was sporting a new earring.

Q. Why did you finally enter the Betty Ford Clinic?
A. This one customer, who goes by the name Stefano, sent me over the edge.

Q. Did you make any friends at the clinic?
A. Yes, Darryl Strawberry.
