2020-2021 Accomplishments

- We established a booster club board per the requirements of the school board and Tiger Fan Club which included establishing by-laws, implemented a process for handling purchases and creating a meeting structure.
- We added additional board members
- We increased information contained on our website
- We involved Coach Holmes, the captains, captain's parents in the board meetings and opened our meetings to the hockey families.
- We purchased two new speakers for the teams
- We purchased three new game jerseys
- We purchased socks to test their quality which was worn by some of the players
- We purchased more breezers
- We purchased jersey bags to assist with the longevity of the equipment
- We purchased team apparel
- We provided each player a mask
- We purchased player, team pictures and senior banners
- We hired Lee Kindem to take pictures of the players during games
- We hired Cyndra for motivational speaking
- We fundraised with the summer jamboree gate fees, Heggies Pizza, face masks and volunteering at a golf event
- We worked through the budget to reduce booster fees
- We created a business spotlight program
- A digital girls hockey program was created
- We posted game information on social media
- We reduced emailing hockey families to one email per week including a new format
- We had COVID tracing available for each game
- And Tomorrow night we celebrate senior night
- We adapted to the pandemic!
- As we move forward in planning the next season, we will continue to improve upon what we implemented and learned throughout the past year to continue our mission on creating a great experience for all players, parents and coaches.
- Thank you.
