“We are excited to be partnering with Premier Basketball to host a National Championship in Houston. With over 30 combined years of hosting tournaments, we are looking forward to bringing a first-class experience to the club team community. Premier’s events are always top-notch and run with an extreme high level of quality and customer service which match our goals for our tournaments. I believe the teams that participate in our National Championship will be glad they did so!” – Norman Schippers, Alodia Basketball Academy

“Premier Basketball is excited to partner with Alodia to offer Houston a National Championship option. This is a great partnership given our similar goals of top quality and providing an exceptional customer experience. We have worked well together in the past and wanted to extend and continue our relationship. We have identified top facilities in Houston and are looking forward to an exceptional National Championship.” – Joey Simmons, Premier Basketball Tournaments
