Complaints that do not fall within the scope of work assigned to our 3rd party will be redirected back to Ontario Soccer for review and dissemination.

- 26. Any person may report an incident or complaint alleging a breach of the Code, in writing within fourteen (14) days of the alleged incident using the 3rd party reporting mechanism detailed in Appendix A. The timeline for submitting a complaint can be waived or extended at the Case Managers discretion.
- 27. It is important to note that Anonymous complaints must be looked at with the utmost seriousness, like every non-anonymous complaint is submitted. With an Anonymous Complainant, the possibility to render a proposed Result where the allegations are found to be substantiated remains. However, it is important to clarify that if a valid Request for Reconsideration is filed following the Proposed Result (leading to a Final Decision-Making Panel), the Independent Third Party cannot guarantee the Complainant's anonymity for the entirety of the process considering the necessity to hold a hearing with both parties present (excluding very exceptional cases).
- 28. Each Organization must identify a Case Manager to process complaints that are directed to the organization. If the organization has not identified a Case Manager, it must appoint one immediately.
- 29. At the Organization's discretion, the organization may act as the Complainant and initiate the complaint process under the terms of this Code. In such cases, the organization will identify an individual to represent the organization.

30. If the Case Manager is in a conflict of interest situation or at their sole discretion, the Case Manager may refer the complaint to another staff person or may appoint an external Case Manager.

- a) The complaint may not have been filed within the correct jurisdiction. The Case Manager will consult with the Organization and any potentially affected Affiliate Organizations. The Case Manager will determine whether the Organization can address the complaint. If not, the Case Manager will inform the Complainant of the correct jurisdiction for filing the complaint
 - b) The Case Manager will determine if the complaint is frivolous or vexatious. (if a complaint is deemed to be frivolous or vexatious the complainant may be subject to disciplinary action or fine).
 - c) The Case Manager will determine if a case is of such seriousness (security compromised/sexual) it may be deemed necessary to skip the Proposed Result and go directly to a the Final Decision Making Panel.
 - d) Request additional clarifying documentation from the Complainant
 - e) Request a response document from the Respondent
 - f) Appoint an Investigator to investigate the complaint, interview parties and witnesses, and prepare an Investigator's Report that will guide the Case Manager in making a decision (the Investigator's Report may be provided to the Final Decision Making Panel, if appointed, but does not replace the requirement for a hearing (if held))

However, if any Party declines to participate in a combined process, the Case Manager must permit the Parties to submit or respond to the complaint separately.
34. The Case Manager will promptly inform the Complainant and the Respondent in writing of the determination and/or Proposed Result, if any.
35. When there is a successful Alternative Dispute Resolution at any point in the process, the complaint is deemed to be closed and resolved.

Request for Reconsideration

36. The Complainant or the Respondent may reject the Proposed Result by submitting a Request for Reconsideration within five (5) days of receiving the Proposed Result. In the Request for Reconsideration, the Complainant or Respondent must indicate:
 - a) Why they reject the Proposed Result;
 - b) The Summary of evidence that the Party intends to submit if there is a hearing; and members of the Final Decision Making Panel should be experienced with handling sport disputes and must not be in a conflict of interest.

41. The Case Manager, in cooperation with the Final Decision Making Panel, will decide the format under which the complaint will be heard. This decision may not be appealed. The format of the hearing may be an oral in-person hearing, an oral hearing by telephone or other communication medium, a hearing based on a review of documentary evidence, or a combination of these methods. The hearing will be governed by the procedures that the Case Manager and the Final Decision Making Panel deem appropriate in the circumstances, provided that:
