EXAMPLE – Weekly Email to Parents:

Hey Team –

We will practice an hour right before our game.

Big Friday coming up – doubleheader after a week off. By way of reminder, we’re on vs. Stanford at 4:20 PM at Aviara Community Park, Field #2, then we play our second game against Oklahoma at 5:10 PM, also on Field #2.

The season is hitting its stride and the boys are doing great! Johnny is catching everything in sight...Chris’ snapping continues to improve...Daryl’s a flag-pulling machine...Taylor is putting great pressure on the opposing QB...Zack’s throwing the ball with zip....How about the defensive tandem of Tate and Aiden? They are doing awesome!

One thing you can help the coaches with is to remind your boys that we will play them in different positions throughout the game, but not to ask to play a certain position before each offensive play. We’re doing the best we can to spread the ball around – it gets hard to “herd the cats” with everyone asking in the huddle. Just a positive reminder from you would be helpful.

Let me know if your child will not be at practice or the game this week so we can plan accordingly.

Thanks,
Coach _____
