5. Concessions Joel Stevens
Thank you to all the volunteers who have signed up thus far. There is only one shift available on 4/26 for the Hebron game. Thanks to those who offered to help take extra shifts also. This past weekend we made $4,823 in concessions, $3,115 in gate fees and $252 in spirit wear. Our total income was $8,190. Thanks to all our volunteers who made this tournament a success.
6. Travel Tournament Updates Kristi Arnold
Boys have requested iced drinks, so we need to help getting coolers packed with ice every day. We will also need help with ordering and picking up food and snacks in between games.
7. Media Committee Erin Brady
March has a lot of deadlines. Please review the checklists in Group Me. Deadlines are coming soon for Spirit Ads (pictures & text) and Senior/Varsity profile questionnaire.

8. Nomination Committee

Mark Pierce

We need 5 volunteers, 1 representative from each class along with an extra person to serve as the committee chair. We need filling the Secretary and the VP of fundraising position for the upcoming '24-'25 season. The nomination committee will present its candidates at the April 2024 board Meeting. Nominations from the floor will also be taken on this meeting date. The booster Club will vote by ballot if more than one candidate exists for the Executive Board position. The vote for next year's Executive Board will take place at our May Booster Club meeting.

Sr – Todd Erickson

Jr – Paul Hawrylak

Soph – John Baer

Fresh – Brett Duncan

Chair – Nathan Turner

9. Coaches Corner

Coach Wallace

Thank you to all that helped last weekend at the tournament. It takes a village to make it run well and smoothly. Next week is the first week of district play. Trying to tell the boys that the two wins per week is valuable no matter the opponent. Rosters will adjust after the tournaments are over. Varsity will be in Baytown this weekend and JV will play at home.
