

Postgame Notes – April 24, 2021
Muskegon Lumberjacks @ Chicago Steel

	1	2	3	OT	F
Lumberjacks	1	0	0	-	1
Steel	1	1	3	-	5

CHICAGO IL– The Chicago Steel downed the Muskegon Lumberjacks in the regular-season finale, 5-1 on Saturday night.

After clinching home ice advantage in the first round of the Clark Cup Playoffs, Muskegon rested 11 of their starters, allowing affiliate Luke Devlin to make his USHL debut... LINK TO POST GAME ARTICLE

Records:

Muskegon: 34-15-1-2 (Away: 17-7-1-0); 72 pts

Chicago: 38-11-3-2 (Home: 20-5-0-1); 81 pts

Link to USHL POST GAME SHEET

Quick Stats:	Shots	PP	PK	PIM
Lumberjacks	22	0-3	3-4	22
Steel	25	1-4	3-3	25

Notes:

- Muskegon scratched 11 players to rest them before the first round vs Green Bay
- Luke Devlin earned his first USHL point on the early Quinn Hutson goal
- Luke Devlin and Bennett Barnes made their USHL debuts tonight.
- Chicago's Sean Farrell earned his 100th point in the USHL this season

Muskegon Lumberjacks Upcoming Games

Friday April 30th, 7:00pm EST vs Green Bay

Saturday May 1st, 7:00pm EST vs Green Bay

Sunday May 2nd, 5:00pm EST vs Green Bay (If necessary)

