2019 IIHF UNDER-18 MEN'S WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP | UMEA & ÖRNSKÖLDSVIK, SWE. | APRIL 18 - 28, 2019

PRELIMINARY ROUND GAME #1 • USA (0-0-0-0) VS. SWEDEN (0-0-0-0) • ÖRNSKÖLDSVIK, SWEDEN • FJÄLLRÄVEN CENTER • APRIL 18, 2019

TONIGHT'S GAME

The U.S. Under-18 Men's National Team faces Sweden tonight to open Group B Preliminary play at the 2019 IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championship here at Fjällräven Center (Örnsköldsvik), Sweden. Team USA enters the tournament seeking its eighth gold medal in 10 years. Puck drop is set for 7:30 p.m. local/1:30 p.m. ET and will be televised in the U.S. live on NHL Network. All-time, the U.S. is 12-2-0-3-0 (W-OTW-OTL-L-T) against Sweden and has outscored them 77-37. In preliminary matchups, Team USA is 6-3-0 (W-L-T) against Sweden and has outscored them 39-24. The two teams last met in 2018 for a preliminary game, where the U.S. fell 1-3. The U.S. enters the 2019 IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championship as silver medalists, falling to Finland 2-3 in last year's gold-medal game. Sweden enters as bronze medalists, defeating Czech Republic 5-2 in last year's bronze-medal game.

TALKING POINTS

2019 IIHF U18 MWC: ABOUT THE TOURNAMENT

The 2019 International Ice Hockey Federation Under-18 Men's World Championship is being held in Örnsköldsvik (A3 Arena) and Umea (Fjällräven Center), Sweden. This will mark the second time Sweden has hosted the tournament, with the previous location being Angelholm/Halmstad (2006) where the U.S. took home gold, defeating Finland 3-1. Unlike this year, the 2006 event saw the U.S. enter the tournament as the defending gold medalist. In the end, Team USA won consecutive gold medals for the first time with Patrick Kane leading the tournament in scoring with 12 points.

JOHN WROBLEWSKI SEEKS SECOND GOLD MEDAL AS U.S. HEAD COACH

John Wroblewski (Neenah, Wis. / USA Hockey's NTDP), head coach of USA Hockey's National Team Development Program Under-18 Team, is serving as the U.S. head coach at the IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championship for the second time and is looking for his second gold-medal as a head coach. He has previously served as assistant coach twice for Team USA during the championship. At the 2008 International Ice Hockey Federation Under-18 Men's World Championship in Kazan, Russia, he served as the assistant coach, when the U.S. finished 5-0-0-2 (W-OTW-OTL-L) with a bronze medal, defeating Sweden 6-3 in the bronze-medal game. Named an assistant coach again during the 2010 IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championship held in Minsk and Babruysk, Belarus, Wroblewski helped the U.S. to 6-0-0-1 (W-OTW-OTL-L) and its 5th-gold medal when the U.S. topped Sweden, 3-1 in the gold-medal game. Being named U.S. head coach in 2017, he lead Team USA to a 6-1-0-0 (W-OTW-OTL-L) and its tenth-gold medal at the 2017 IIHF Under-18 World Championship in Poprad, Slovakia, defeating Finland, 4-2 in the gold-medal game. He is joined behind the bench by assistant coaches Dan Hinote (Elk River, Minn. / USA Hockey's NTDP), Kevin Lind (Homer Glen, Ill. / USA Hockey's NTDP), Thomas Speer (Janesville, Wis. / USA Hockey's NTDP) and Jared Nightingale (Jackson, Mich. / USA Hockey's NTDP).

HOW WE GOT HERE

The journey towards today's tournament opening game began on April 11, when the U.S. convened in Vierumäki, Finland, for practice. Team USA then played in two exhibition games, falling to Finland 1-0 and topping Switzerland 8-0 on April 12 & 13. On April 15, the team departed for Örnsköldsvik, Sweden via ferry, where they will remain for the rest of the tournament.

THINGS WORTH MENTIONING

The U.S. enters the 2019 IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championship having won 62 of 81 preliminary-round games and is 62-0-1-17-1 (W-OTW-OTL-L-T) all-time in tournament opening matchups. Team USA has five returning players who captured a silver medal for Team USA at the tournament last year, forwards Cole Caufield (Stevens Point, Wis.), Jack Hughes (Orlando, Fla.), Alex Turcotte (Island Lake, Ill.), defenseman Cam York (Anaheim Hills, Calif.) and goaltender Spencer Knight (Darien, Conn.). Last year, forward Jack Hughes earned the Directorate Award as the tournament's top forward. Hughes was also named to the Media All-Star Team and tournament MVP after leading the tournament in scoring with 12 points (5-7-12). Knight won four games in goal last year, while York recorded six assists and was named to the Media All-Star Team. Turcotte scored two goals and five points and Caufield tallied four goals and six points, both in seven games.

ABOUT HODGES

Jason Hodges is in his 21st season with USA Hockey's National Team Development Program and in 2018-19 is serving as athletic trainer for the U.S. National Under-18 Team. Hodges has served on the staff of five gold-medal squads at the International Ice Hockey Federation Men's Under-18 World Championship (2005, 2009, 2011, 2015, 2017). Additionally he has two silver medals in the event (2007, 2013).

ABOUT VISSER

Jake Visser is in his ninth season with USA Hockey's National Team Development Program and will work as the equipment manager for the U.S. National Under-18 Team in 2018-19. His stint has included three gold medals (2011, 2015, 2017) and one silver medal (2013) at the International Ice Hockey Federation Men's Under-18 World Championship. At the signature event for the U.S. National Under-17 Team, the World Under-17 Challenge, Visser has seen one first-place finish (January 2014) and one second-place finish (2012).

ABOUT THE STAFF

ABOUT MONAGHAN

Scott Monaghan will serve as the general manager of the U.S. Under-18 Men's National Team for the 21st time at the U18 Men's Worlds. He has served on the staff of for all ten gold medal-winning squads at the 2002, 2005, 2006, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012 and 2014, 2015, 2017. An original staff member of USA Hockey's NTDP, he currently serves as its senior director of operations and is responsible for all aspects of the NTDP. Monaghan works closely with the NTDP coaching staff to develop the challenging schedule the teams play, including the growth of an NCAA Division I/II schedule for the U18s and the program's transition to a full-time member of the USHL. Monaghan also has been on the staff of six U.S. National Junior Teams, last serving as team leader for the gold medal-winning squad at the 2010 IIHF World Junior Championship. Monaghan sits on the USA Hockey Player Development Committee and the USA Hockey Junior Council.

ABOUT WROBLEWSKI

John Wroblewski will be serving as head coach for the second time after previously leading the U.S. to a gold medal with a perfect 6-1-0-0 (W-OTW-OTL-L) record at the 2017 IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championship. A player on the inaugural roster of USA Hockey's National Team Development Program in 1997, Wroblewski served as head coach of the United States Hockey League's Youngstown Phantoms (2015-16) prior to his current role. The Neenah, Wisconsin, native began his coaching career as an intern assistant coach for the U.S. National Under-18 Team (2007-08) as part of the NTDP. The following year, he was promoted to a full-time assistant coach, a position he held for two seasons (2008-10). In 2010, Wroblewski earned a gold medal as Team USA claimed first place at the 2010 IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championship. Wroblewski skated with the NTDP for two seasons (1997-99) before suiting up for the University of Notre Dame. A four-year letterwinner with the Fighting Irish (1999-2003), Wroblewski served as alternate captain during his senior year and was the winner of the Notre Dame Monogram Club's Most Valuable Player Award.

ABOUT HINOTE

Dan Hinote is making his first appearance coaching for Team USA at the IIHF Under-18 Men's World Championship. Hinote, who played 14 years of professional hockey in the NHL, AHL and SHL, recently concluded his first year as associate coach for the U.S. National Under-18 Team during the 2018-19 season. The Elk River, Minn., native played 503 games in the NHL and won a Stanley Cup championship with the Colorado Avalanche in 2001. He retired from professional hockey in 2010 and spent four seasons (2010-14) as an assistant coach with the Columbus Blue Jackets as well as a part-time scout for the Blue Jackets. Hinote played two seasons of college hockey at the U.S. Military Academy and today remains the only player in program history to be drafted as he was selected by the Colorado Avalanche in 1996.

ABOUT LIND

Kevin Lind, who has served as an intern assistant coach for USA Hockey's NTDP from 2017-19, will be an assistant coach for the U.S. at the 2019 IIHF Men's World Championship for the first time. Prior to the NTDP, Lind spent the 2016-17 season as an assistant coach for the University of Notre Dame. The 2010 NHL Draft pick (ANA, 6th rd., 177th ovr.) and four-year letter winner with the Fighting Irish (2010-14), Lind continues to be the only person in Notre Dame Hockey history to reach the NCAA's Frozen Four as both a player (2011) and a coach (2017). The Homer Glen, Ill. native won a championship with Team USA at the 2009 World Junior A Challenge and served as an assistant captain at the 2009 Ivan Hlinka Memorial Tournament.

ABOUT NIGHTINGALE

Jared Nightingale, who served as an intern assistant coach for the U.S. National Under-17 Team during the 2018-19 season, will represent the U.S. for the first time as an assistant coach at the IIHF Men's Under-18 World Championship. Nightingale spent the 2017-18 season as an assistant coach for the United States Hockey League's Omaha Lancers. The Cheboygan, Michigan, native played four years (2002-06) at Michigan State, and was an alternate captain his junior and senior seasons. Nightingale went on to a 13-year professional playing career that included stops in both the ECHL and AHL.

ABOUT SPEER

Thomas Speer, USA Hockey's national goaltending coach, will coach for Team USA a second time at the IIHF Men's Under-18 World Championship. Speer, who also oversees the Warren Strelow National Goaltending Mentor Program, guides the Under-17 and Under-18 goaltenders at USA Hockey's National Team Development Program. Prior to the NTDP, Speer worked as director of amateur goaltending for the Dallas Stars, a goalie development coordinator for USA Hockey in Texas and Oklahoma, and as director of camp development and personnel for Elite Goalies in Allen, Texas. He also served as a goaltending coach for the Allen Americans of the ECHL for four seasons.
