President Report: Introduced guests

Guests:

1. Pauline /Byars: State cup volunteer coordinator- State cup link is on the ESC website, 3000 volunteers are needed and the State Cup will have a tent at this month's tournament. Volunteers need only sign up to volunteer. Specifics will come later.
 - 2. James Soesbee: Players for: rec season,-1478, Academy-191, Center of Excellence-137-170.
 - Coaches Education Soccer Center Coach S. has a goal of compiling an instruction manual of lesson plans for practice drills. He would also like to tape some practice sessions for coaches.
 - Rec Camp- is the last week of JULY and is $75.00.
 - Apprentice program for new Academy coaches for 6-12 months. They will be assigned a team as they become available. Players will be able to play on an academy and rec team at the same time. Academy registration will be same time as rec registration and the cub will look to recommend players to the academy program.
 - Beat the Heat Tournament- boys and girls weekend are combined due to a decrease in enrollment in recent years. Ideas for advertising. Coach S. has 1100 email address that he can send bulletins out, using Facebook or social media online such as Oklahoma ball.
 - Coach Soesbee requested that coaches' information is on Got Soccer. A. Aguilar will do this via the coaches' coordinators.
3. Jimmy Hampton:
 - a. Changes to competitive tryout process due to USYSA changes
 - No Dead Week
 - Signing Day Tuesday May 29 5-8 at NOKC complex / No Tryouts-players sign up for their age group.
 - Instead of tryouts, there will be a placement camp on June4-7. At the end of the placement camp, the coaches will let you know what team that you will be on.

- You can also go to the placement camp and sign up once a spot on a team has been offered. There will not be a guarantee that there will be openings on a team if you do not sign up until the placement camp.
- b. Championship Series Rule will be in effect for teams going to Regionals or Nationals. The rule is that after State Championship, you must take players from our roster and can have 5 other players from your club that are not on your team.
- c. Parents of players moving up from academy will be contact about the move to competitive or traveling rec. and the steps involved in each path.
