Lafa, an all-volunteer organization in existence since 1965, supports games & practices for over 700 children in baseball, softball, and most recently kickball. You'll find action at the complex daily, including all-day traffic on Saturdays & Sundays. In addition to our recreational programs, we offer both travel baseball and softball, hosting state and regional tournaments at the complex. This flow of visitors from both inside and outside the town of Londonderry provides any business terrific exposure to 10,000+ potential customers.

If you are interested in becoming a sponsor, please complete the form on back and mail to the address listed. We appreciate your support!
