

Traveling Program FAQ

- Are traveling coaches involved in traveling evaluations?
  - Coaches (who are not board members) do not participate in or observe evaluations
  - Board members (coaches and non-coaches) do participate in evaluations but do NOT participate in or observe the evaluations for any group in which they have a child participating
  - Traveling team formation policies are available in the MBA program guidelines
- Can MBA make open gym time available for players?
  - Gym space is extremely limited during the season
  - MBA is hoping to offer open gym for participants this summer
- How is it determined which teams have late practices?
  - Practice days and times are assigned taking coach requests into account
  - MBA tries to avoid late practices for the youngest teams
- How does MBA select the tournaments we participate in?
  - MBA tries to create a tournament schedule that provides a good on/off schedule, a variety of locations and (new) focused on 1-day and no-gate fee formats
  - When tournament specific feedback is provided (good or bad) MBA will take it into account when scheduling for the following year