2022 U.S. COACHING STAFF

JOEL JOHNSON, HEAD COACH

Joel Johnson is serving as head coach of the U.S. U.S. Olympic Women's Ice Hockey Team for the first time.

His first involvement with USA Hockey dates back to working summer camps in 2000 and has been closely involved with the U.S. Women's National Team program since 2015, highlighted by leading Team USA to a silver medal at the 2021 IIHF Women's World Championship and to four straight gold medals (2015-18) in the IIHF U18 Women's World Championship.

Johnson has served as head coach of the U.S. Under-22 Women's Select Team on two occasions for the U22 Series against Canada, leading the U.S. to a three-game sweep in 2018 and a 2-1 series victory in 2019. He made his U.S. Women's National Team debut as an assistant coach in 2018-19 and helped guide the U.S. to the gold medal at the 2019 IIHF Women's World Championship in Espoo, Finland.

Johnson was tapped to be head coach of the women's ice hockey team at the University of St. Thomas in 2021 as the Tommies transitioned to playing Division I hockey. Prior to UST, he spent 16 years (1999-2004 and 2010-21) as assistant or associate coach for the University of Minnesota women's hockey team, helping the Gophers to six national titles (2000, 2004, 2012, 2013, 2015 and 2016.)

Johnson coached at his alma mater, Bethel University, for six seasons (2004-10), including three as the head men's ice hockey coach. Along with his hockey responsibilities, he was the men's and women's golf coach, and prior to that, coached soccer, where he earned MIAC Coach of the Year honors. In 2010, Johnson returned to Minnesota and helped the Gophers to five straight NCAA national championship game appearances from 2012 to 2016, winning back-to-back national titles in 2012 and 2013 and again in 2015 and 2016, along with recording a perfect 41-0-0 season in 2012-13.

Kennedy served as an assistant coach of the U.S. Under-18 National Team for the 2016-17 and 2017-18 seasons, helping lead the team to its third- and fourth-straight gold medal at the IIHF U18 World Championships and at the 2013 and 2014 IIHF U18 World Championships, helping lead the squad to silver medals at both tournaments. She also served as an assistant coach of the U22 team at the 2019 Women's National Festival. As a player, Kennedy was a two-time All-American defender at Minnesota in 1999 and 2001 and helped lead Minnesota to its first national title in 2000. As a senior, the blueliner earned Western Collegiate Hockey Association Player of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year honors. She was also a top-three finalist for the Patty Kazmaier Award. Kennedy earned a silver medal at the 2002 Olympic Winter Games in Salt Lake City, Utah, and a bronze medal at the 2006 Games in Torino, Italy. She also helped the U.S. capture its first gold medal at the IIHF Women's World Championship in 2005.
