REQUIREMENTS FOR FINANCIAL AID RECIPIENTS

- Submit Financial Aid application when requested, by the stated deadline.
- Submit copy of most recent year Federal Tax Return for your family. Your application is not complete until this is received.
- Once placed on a team, complete the Team Commitment Registration module online by the published deadline (generally this will be within a couple days after teams are posted). This will bind you to ESC for the yearlong season..
- Time frame for payments is generally August, November, January, and March.
- Timely payments and communication are required from families.
- Participation is required in all team activities: practices, training, games, and tournaments.
- Order and pay for an ESC uniform by the deadline date.
- Families must provide an email address that they check regularly, as this is the primary way the Club and Team Coach and Manager communicate with families regarding all Club business. Timely responses to Club emails are required!

In an effort to serve those in greatest need and with the most desire to play soccer with our Club, ESC reserves the right to terminate ties with any player not following the payment schedule or participation and communication requirements outlined above.

Receiving financial assistance one year does not guarantee assistance or the same amount of assistance in future years. Applications must be made on an annual basis.

I understand all of the above and agree to comply with everything outlined.
